Proposes Stand-By Plans

Dag Urges U.N. Members Meet Conflict Situations

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold today recommended that the U.N. Assembly set up stand-by arrangements to get military forces from member countries quickly to meet specific "conflict situations."

Hammarskjold made his recommendation in a 24,000-word report on the U.N.'s experience with the U.N. Emergency Force in Egypt.

His plan somewhat resembled suggestions Secretary of State Dulles had made to the assembly Sept. 18 for stand-by arrangements for a U.N. peace force.

The secretary general's proposal seemed certain to draw criticism from the Soviet Union. The Soviet bloc has refused to pay its alloted share of UNEF's expenses, contending the Assembly usurped the Security Council's authority in creating that force. Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko has attacked Dulles' suggestions.

Hammarskjold said experience with the different forms of U.N. intervention in Egypt, Lebanon, and Jordan had shown the need for flexibility.

"In each new conflict situation in which the United Nations might be called upon to intervene with military personnel," he said, "the nature of the actual organization required and its paramilitary aspects would be determined by the particular needs of the situation and could not, therefore, be anticipated in advance."

Such situations differ so much, he went on, that "a nucleus United Nations force of the type generally envisaged would be without great practical value."

He recommended, therefore, that the Assembly "do no more than endorse certain basic principles and rules which would provide an adaptable framework for later operations."

Hammarskjold said his Secretariat then could sound out governments that might plan for "the possibility of having to provide promptly — on an emergency basis, on specific appeal from the United Nations—men and material" for a specific U.N. operation.

On another front, U.N. members pledge money today to funds totaling 100 million dollars to help underdeveloped nations improve their lot.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont), a U.S. delegate to the General Assembly, promised 38 million dollars in advance of the special pledging conference. Soviet Delegate G. P. Arkadyev said the Soviet Union also would contribute but didn't say how much.

The Assembly authorized a 50-million-dollar fund to help the underdeveloped nations train technicians and plan large-scale development projects.

The other 50-million-dollar program is the U.N.'s regular technical assistance program, which provides specialists to advises local farmers, businessmen and others.

Police Think Key Is Held To Bombings

Fifth Arrested In Atlanta Says He's One Of Two In Plot

ATLANTA (AP)—Police believe they hold the key that will unlock the mystery of Southwide bombings by a secret ring of anti-Jewish fanatics.

Officers investigating the dynamiting of The Temple arrested a fifth man and booked him on suspicion of bombing. The Temple was bombed early Sunday.

Capt. R. E. Little identified the man as Wallace H. Allen and said he was one of two men who helped plot the Atlanta bombing last May. The other man accused of taking part in the May meeting is George Michael Bright, 35. Both live in Atlanta.

The break in the investigation stemmed from a statement by an unidentified man who said he and four others attended the meeting and planned the bombing.

Allen, a cripple, told arresting officers: "If it's the bombing you're interested in, I don't know anything about it. I've never even seen a stick of dynamite." Detectives said they found penciled drawings of a Nazi swastika and anti-Semitic literature in Allen's home.

Under arrest in addition to Allen and Bright were Robert A. Bowling, 25; Luther King Corley, 26; and Kenneth Chester Griffin, 32, all of Atlanta.

Investigators said they believe that when the $200,000 Atlanta blast is solved, it will clear up other synagogue bombings in Miami and Jacksonville, Fla.; Nashville, Tenn.; and an attempted dynamiting in Birmingham, Ala. All the bombings have occurred in the past eight months.

Rewards for the Atlanta dynamiters have climbed to $15,000.

Anti-Semitism Ruled Out In Peoria Blast

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — Police Chief Bernard Kennedy ruled out anti-Semitism today as a possible motive for the bombing of Peoria's oldest Jewish house of worship.

He said he was convinced the bombing early Tuesday was the work of a mentally deranged per-

Airman, Wife, 2 Children Die In Air Crash

Killed were Sgt. Francis McKinney, 31, of Jacksonville, Ark.; his wife, Anne Mae, 26; a daughter, Deborah, 4; and a son, Robert, 2.

Airport officials said they had cautioned McKinney Tuesday night against trying to fly in fog surrounding the airport. He took off this morning without notifying them, they said.

The four-place, single-engine place crashed moments later near the New York State Thruway, two miles north of here.

McKinney was returning to Little Rock, Ark., where he was stationed, state police said. The family had been visiting relatives here.

Rightists Call For Strike In Algeria Strife

ALGIERS (AP) — Rightist politicians in Algeria called for a general strike Thursday afternoon during demonstration protesting Premier De Gaulle's order banning the French army from politics in the North African territory.

In Paris, Gen. Raoul Salan, military governor of Algeria, and Gen. Paul Ely, commander of all French forces, met with De Gaulle and the Cabinet. It was assumed the Premier was impressing on them his determination to reimpose the government's authority over the army in Algeria.

Civilian members of the Central Committee of Public Safety for Algeria, who touched off the May 13 revolt against the Fourth Republic that brought De Gaulle back to power, raised the threat of a similar rebellion against De Gaulle.

The Algerian politicos, already openly dissatisfied with De Gaulle's overtures to the Algerian Moslems, said they would "continue their fight for the objectives of May 13" — integration of Algeria into France, which would preserve French control.

De Gaulle in his order said he had acted to insure that the election Nov. 23 of Algerian representatives to the French National Assembly would be held "under conditions of absolute freedom and sincerity" and so that candidates of "all tendencies" could compete. This was taken as an invitation to the nationalist rebels who have been fighting for independence for four years.

Army officers resigned Tuesday from the Public Safety Committees in obedience to De Gaulle. But they did not hide their bitterness. Some top officers said they had resigned only because the order came to them through Salan.

Police Solve Theft Of Guns

City Youth, Hancock Man Face Charges

Arrest of an East End youth and a New Cumberland area man has solved the Oct. 1 burglary of an East Liverpool sports shop in which guns worth $456 and other merchandise were stolen, police said today.

Taken into custody Tuesday night in connection with the burglary were Robert G. Wolfe, 19, of 854 Pennsylvania Ave. and Lloyd Carl Leisure of New Cumberland R. D. 2. Wolfe will be charged with burglary and Leisure will be accused of receiving and concealing stolen property, Acting Chief Clyde W. Boso said.

The charges are linked to a burglary at Bob's Sports Shop, 948 Pennsylvania Ave., in which intruders took two 12-gauge shotguns worth $94.95 each, a 20-gauge shotgun worth $93.95, another 12-gauge shotgun worth $98, an "over-and-under" gun worth $41.50, a bolt action rifle worth $17.95 and a BB gun valued at $14.95.

The loot also included $7.73 in change, a radio, a flash camera, a hunting coat valued at $19.95 and an undetermined quantity of ammunition.

The two were arrested by Patrolmen Thomas Walker and C. E. (Bill) Tice of the Special Service Bureau, working in conjunction with Lt. George B. Kidd.

Police said the two men have admitted complicity in the case.

New Cabinet Brings Peace For Beirut

Strike Ends, Armed Civilian Gangs Tear Down Barricades

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—A new four-man Cabinet representing the main factions in the Lebanese civil war was formed today. Peace at once returned to Beirut.

A general strike of shopkeepers ended, and the business district started back to normal. Armed civilian gangs began dismantling street barricades.

The specter of war between Moslems and Christians appeared to have subsided.

The new government cannot solve any of the little country's long-term problems. But it may cool tempers and restore order so that these problems can be settled politically and not in street battles and terrorism.

Rashid Karami, a leader of the rebellion against former President Camille Chamoun, remained premier. But his deputy premier now is Pierre Gemayel, leader of the pro-Chamoun Phalange party whose three-week strike had closed most business establishments and brought down Karami's first Cabinet.

The other two members are Hussein Oweini, whose National Front spearheaded the rebellion against Chamoun, and Raymond Edde, a neutral who had tried to mediate the civil war.

The new government called on all citizens to "resume work and restore order to permit Lebanon to return to a normal life." The east Mediterranean Arab state has been torn by violence since May 10. Lately the situation has grown uglier with daily slayings and kidnapings.

Karami formed his first Cabinet Sept. 24 of rebel associates and neutrals. The Phalangists demanded representation in the government and fought Karami much as he had Chamoun. Faced last week, with certain defeat on a parliamentary vote of confidence, Karami offered his resignation to President Fuad Chehab. Chehab refused to accept the resignation and threatened to form a military government unless the contending parties got together.

Settlement On Formosa Held Slight

U.S. Attempting To Persuade Chiang To Pull Islands Troops

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is trying to persuade Nationalist China to withdraw some troops from its offshore islands even though officials here see little chance of negotiating a Formosa settlement with Red China.

The line of U.S. action is apparent in statements made by Secretary of State Dulles at a news conference Tuesday.

His remarks also added up to saying that this is a very delicate operation for the United States. Should it press Nationalist China too hard, the Chinese Reds might gain in their objective of driving a wedge between the United States and the Nationalist government on Formosa, which controls the Quemoy and Matsu islands off the Chinese mainland.

Dulles urged that the Quemoy crisis and other current aspects of foreign policy be kept out of political debate. He called on both Democratic and Republican politicians to "calm down." At one point, in replying to questions, he said in effect that both a weekend statement by the 24-member Democratic Advisory Council and a reply by Vice President Nixon had gone beyond the bounds of what he considers proper.

The Democratic council charged that administration policies had carried the country "to the brink of having to fight a nuclear war inadequately prepared and alone." Nixon shot back an accusation that foreign policy under Democratic Secretary of State Dean Acheson "resulted in war" while the Eisenhower-Dulles policy "resulted in peace."

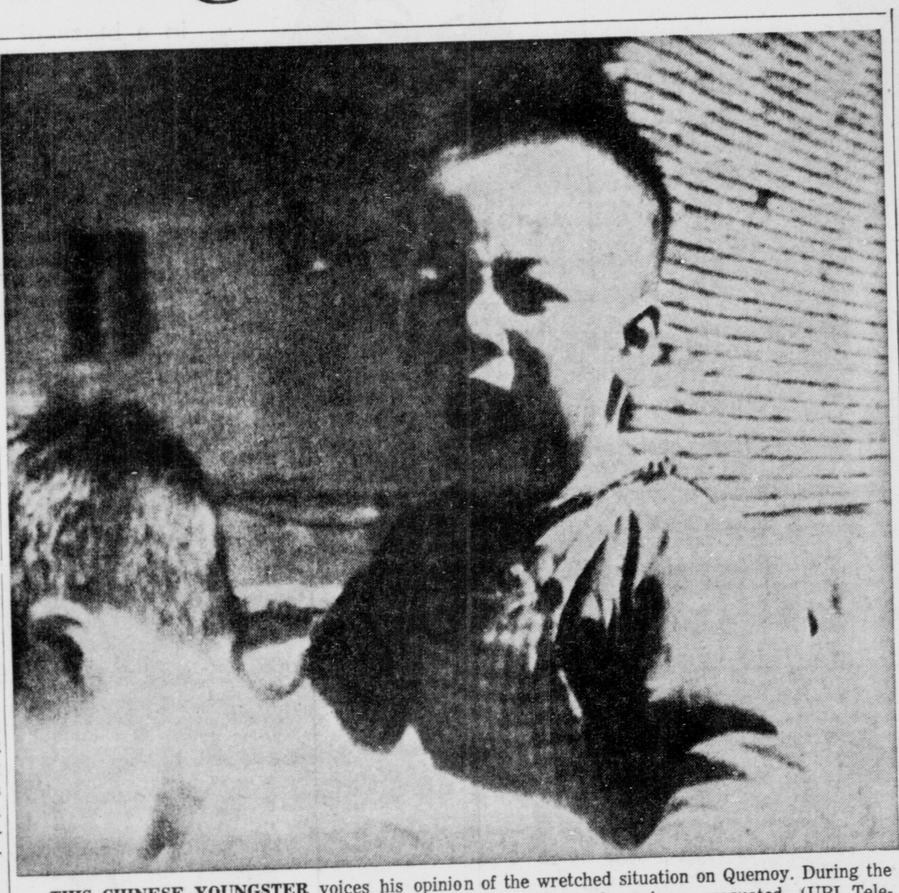

Dulles got into the subject of political discussion when a reporter asked whether Nixon's criticism fell within the limits prescribed by the secretary. Dulles said, "It might fit without the limits." Newsmen later asked for a clarification, which prompted Dulles to change his remarks to include the Democratic council.

"Both statements might fit without the limits which I hope both sides would observe," Dulles said.

Dulles denied that the United States has any plans whatever for urging Nationalist China to reduce its military strength on Quemoy now that the Communists have extended their seven-day truce there for an additional two weeks.

He added, however, that "no doubt there are discussions that are going on" now on Formosa between U.S. Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy and others as to the most useful disposition of Nationalist forces.

Caster Named New Director Of Ware Firm

W. S. George Reveals Experiments With Use Of Local Clay

EAST PALESTINE — Nelson Dugan was named new member of the directors of the W. S. George Pottery Co. at the annual meeting Tuesday night when a progress report on the pottery was made and it was revealed the firm is experimenting with local clays.

Dugan, caster at the firm for 40 years, was named workers' representative on the board, succeeding Leland Quinn, who declined renomination.

The other directors were returned. They were Atty. J. E. Bauknecht, Roy V. Beck, Clyde Brittain, Atty. Jack Cohen, George E. Guthrie and Paul J. Steffens, president.

About 60 stockholders attended, representing some 70 per cent of the control of the firm, which went through a reorganization and refinancing early this year.

Steffens reported on current experiments and production developments at the dinnerware concern, including changes in the glazing and drying departments and the use of clays from the Negley area in place of clays shipped from Tennessee and Florida. Steffens

Chiang Seen Pulling Some Island Troops

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Nationalists appear more and more likely to pull a sizable number of their troops out of Quemoy.

Competent sources in Taipei said Nationalist leaders were resigned to accepting the U.S. proposal that new weapons with greater firepower replace some of the manpower of the offshore island's garrison.

Some sources said as many as half the 100,000 to 120,000 troops in the offshore areas might be pulled back to Formosa.

The American idea is to cut the threat of Nationalist invasion of the mainland as a bargaining point in talks with the Communists, but to leave the island garrisons strong enough to repel a Red landing.

The Americans hope by this to attain a permanent cease-fire in the Formosa Strait.

In Manila, U.S. Defense Secretary Neil McElroy said he thinks there will be a modernization of the Nationalist equipment and that Chiang Kai-shek's government will consider reducing the offshore garrisons. McElroy, on a round-the-world tour of U.S. installations, conferred earlier this week with Chiang.

Father Finds Boy's Body In River Search

Funeral's Thursday For David Casto, 13, Drowning Victim

The body of David C. Casto of East Liverpool, who drowned a week ago today, was found in the Ohio River at Wellsville, just offshore from 8th St., Tuesday at 12:45 p. m. (EST).

The body was discovered by his father, Orville Casto, 1003 Lincoln Ave., his grandfather, David Casto of East Liverpool, and Otis Weekley, 820 Aten Ave., Wellsville, member of the Wellsville Boat Club.

The boy, 13, drowned when he fell from a makeshift raft about noon last Wednesday. The body was found about four feet from shore about five blocks downriver from where the accident occurred.

Firemen, policemen and members of the boat club had been patroling the river daily in search of the body. Dragging operations were halted Thursday, however.

Authorities said David and four other youngsters, including his two brothers, were playing hookey from Westgate School. They walked toward Wellsville and wandered down to the river shore where they found the raft made of an old screen door and boards.

David fell from the raft after pushing it away from shore. The other boys, Alan Casto, 9, Gary Casto, 11, William Thomas, 14, and Charles Jones, 14, ran for help. The raft and the boy's jacket were found when they returned but he had vanished.

The boy was born in East Liverpool. He was a member of the First Church of Christ.

Survivors include his parents, the paternal grandfather, two brothers, the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilson of East Liverpool, and a sister, Joyce Ann Casto at home.

Services will be held at the Martin Funeral Home Thursday at 10:30 a. m. by John Mostoller, minister of the First Church of Christ. Burial will be in Locust Hill Cemetery at Chester.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and tonight.

Brands Responsible Persons Al Capone And Nelson Types

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today angrily characterized those responsible for bombings of places of worship as hoodlums of the Al Capone and Babyface Nelson type.

At a news conference the President spoke out vigorously against the dynamiting of Jewish temples in Atlanta, Ga., and Peoria, Ill.

He did so after a reporter told him that some of those responsible apparently have been privately identifying themselves as members of a "Confederate underground."

Addressing himself to that description, Eisenhower said that from babyhood he has been taught to respect the Southern Confederacy of Civil War days.

Then he said that for hoodlums to describe themselves as any part of the Confederacy is a complete insult.

They should be described, he added angrily, as Al Capones and Babyface Nelsons, and that kind of hoodlum.

Eisenhower also dealt with these other matters:

FOREIGN POLICY — He said emphatically that foreign policy ought to be kept out of partisan debate in the current congressional campaign.

Then he said that another man who has borne the responsibility of the presidency—A clear allusion to Harry S. Truman — also has taken the position that foreign policy should be left out of partisan politics.

Eisenhower made his remarks when a newsman asked whether he subscribes to Vice President Nixon's campaign statement, made in reply to Democratic criticism, that "the Acheson foreign policy resulted in war and the Eisenhower-Dulles policy resulted in peace."

Eisenhower said he had not heard that quotation before. Then he added, without any direct comment on the Nixon statement, that he does subscribe to the idea that foreign policy should be kept out of partisan debate.

He said further that the country's long term interests are better served if that sort of thing is not indulged in.

On a related matter dealing with this country's position regarding defense of Quemoy, Eisenhower said he does not decry any intelligent criticism of any particular point. But when it comes to policy, he said, that has been standing on its own feet for a long time.

POLITICS—Eisenhower backed away from an Oct. 6 statement by Republican leaders saying the clear alternative to election of a Republican-controlled Congress is nationalization and socialization of

Only Small Number At 5th Mass For Pope

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Only a handful of visitors were in St. Peter's Basilica today as the fifth of nine daily Requiem Masses was said for Pope Pius XII.

The titular Bishop of Adana, Diego Venini, celebrated the Mass before a symbolic empty coffin in the Chapel of the Choir. The chapel gates were closed against the visitors, mostly pilgrims from abroad.

Strike Threatens Jet Liner Tussle With U.S.

LONDON (AP) — A strike of British Overseas Airways Corp. employes today threatened the British Comet jetliner in its tussle with America's Boeing 707 for the Atlantic jet passenger trade.

BOAC officials said they would not be able to meet their Nov. 14 schedule for starting daily Comet trips across the Atlantic.

PTAs Hear City Officials

Drive Opens In Behalf Of City Tax

Three officials reported today they found a preponderantly favorable response when they officially launched the administration's campaign for retention of the city income tax at the Nov. 4 general election in talks Tuesday night to more than 400 persons at four civic meetings.

Mayor Fred P. Lawrence spoke to 100 at a meeting of the McKinley Parent - Teacher Association; Safety - Service Director Dan Maggianetti appeared before 125 at the Lincoln School PTA meeting, and Council President B. E. Warner spoke to 160 at the Westgate School's elementary PTA session, also appearing before a "Town Hall" meeting on educational problems in the library.

All three commented this morning that the questions and comments from the audiences were favorable to the income tax. In each case, they discussed the improvements in city services and facilities that have been made since the new revenue measure took effect May 1. They also outlined the street and sewer programs and other projects that have been planned if voters decide to retain the tax.

In his talk at McKinley School, the mayor declared that 38 other cities in Ohio and many others in the United States have adopted the income tax as a revenue measure.

"That is indicative of the fact it is not a new type of tax, but rather it is a useful and appropriate source of municipal income," he said. "It also is indicative of the fact this is an economic issue and not a political issue. The subject of income tax crosses party lines."

Then he discussed the Council-administration investigation that preceded the decision to enact the tax.

"The administration and Council didn't enter into it hastily," he said. "It was only after three months of intensive investigation involving every city department. As a result we arrived at the minimum requirements for additional income to provide the bare minimum of acceptable service."

As a result of the investigation, Council and the administration determined that East Liverpool needed $350,000 to $400,000 a year in new income, he explained. Drawing on the experience of other cities and after examining every available source of income it was decided that the income tax would be "the most suitable and equitable," Lawrence explained. The tax "spreads the burden so that no individual is taxed unfairly," he commented.

"All of the income tax proceeds remain in the city for its own use, but only 26 cents out of each $1 collected here in real estate tax is returned to the city for municipal operations," the mayor said. "Chain stores and other businesses owned by out-of-town stockholders pay the tax, just as our residents do. Non-residents who work here share in the city services and they also pay the tax."

The revenue from the tax will make it possible for the city to operate on a pay-as-you-go basis, rather than issuing bonds to finance long-range improvements, the mayor added. He pointed out that a 40-year bond issue at 5 per cent to raise $100,000 actually costs the city $200,000 in principal and interest. Bond issues can be held to a minimum if the city is able to finance its improvements out of current revenue, he added.

"Contrary to the inference in some quarters, many labor union leaders in other cities favor the income tax," the mayor said. "This is true in Pittsburgh, Canton, Barberton and other cities."

The mayor pointed out that the tax revenue has made it possible to increase the personnel of both the police and fire departments "closer to the proper strength." It has allowed purchase of street department equipment so that the city can do its own street oiling and seal - coating, he added. Equipment has been purchased to form the nucleus of a police department crime laboratory and the system of adult school crossing guards has been restored, he added.

The tax revenue made it possible to provide a third Salk anti-polio shot without charge to 1,700 school children. It also made it possible to set up a fund from which anti - rabies vaccine can be furnished immediately for anyone bitten by an apparently rabid dog, he said.

Out of the new revenue, the city has purchased Scott Air - Paks for the fire department for use in battling blazes that produce chemical fumes and heavy smoke. It also has purchased special equipment for generating foam to battle gasoline and chemical fires, the mayor added.

Warner enumerated the city's recent improvements and then turned to the plans for future projects. He said the city hopes to eliminate 1 mill of the special levy now collected to finance garbage and rubbish disposal. It also has plans for a year - round recreation program, he added.

If the tax is retained, it will make it possible to buy a new pumper for the fire department, surface dirt streets at a comparatively small cost to property-owners and resurface and widen arterial streets, Warner said. Repair of crumbling retaining walls overlooking Pennsylvania Ave. in East End also is planned, he said.

Maggianetti declared that there are four basic factors on which a community is judged: Stability of business and employment; civic interest of its people; honesty and integrity in government and a sound financial structure able to use a pay - as - you - go plan.

The director also emphasized recent increases in personnel of the police and fire departments and pointed out both forces have completed training programs. Replacement of doors at Central Fire Station is under way, a project that has been needed for years, he added. The director invited the PTA members to inspect the North Side Fire Station, asserting it has deteriorated to the point where it should be condemned and replaced.

Workers have been added to the street department to work on surfacing and oiling of streets and cleaning of storm and sanitary sewers, he said.

"This community is 124 years old and has 140 miles of streets, but only 47 miles are paved," he declared.

"We aren't trying to blame anyone in the past for what hasn't been done," he said. "We're looking to the future."

Most of the property was recovered in the possession of Leisure, Boso said.

Police did not disclose the way in which the investigation led to the two suspects. Formal charges were drawn up against the two men this morning by Assistant Solicitor Richard J. Clark. They probably will be arraigned Thursday before Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw.

At the time of the burglary, Robert Broadbent, proprietor, said entrance was gained by breaking a glass in a door on the west side of the building.

39 Countians Leave For Draft Physicals

Thirty - nine Columbiana County residents left Lisbon for Cleveland this morning for pre - induction physicals Draft Board 16 announced. Two failed to appear but contacted the board, six transferred to other districts and one was declared delinquent.

The delinquent is Robert William Wooley, 22, whose addresses previous were listed as 334 Commerce St., Wellsville, and Dewey Ave., East Liverpool. His name has been sent to the U. S. attorney and the director of Selective Service for appropriate action, the board said.

John Herman Jr., chairman of the board, reminded that all young men are required to register within 5 days after their 18th birthday to comply with the Selective Service Act.

Thirteen will leave for induction Oct. 28 and nine will leave on Nov. 24.

The next quota for physicals in November will be only four as the board has sent all it can for the present. Those destined for physicals must have been born before Dec. 15, 1936, unless they volunteer, Mrs. Elaine Griffith, clerk of the board, said.

son. He said police and FBI agents were without clues.

Rabbi Joseph Ginsberg, who serves the temple's 700 members, said he believed the bombing had some connection with the dynamiting of the temple home of the Hebrew Benevolent Congregation in Atlanta Sunday.

A crude bomb, made of a bit of pipe filled with black powder, exploded in a stairwell of the rear annex of the Anshai Emeth Temple, about four blocks from the downtown district. It shattered a basement door and broke 12 windows.

Sixteen months ago an unexploded bomb was found at the construction site of the Agudas Achim Synagogue here. Kennedy said the two bombs were identical and obviously made by the same person.

Both Rabbi Ginsberg and Kennedy said there was virtually no racial tension in Peoria. The rabbi said he had received no warnings or other hints of trouble.

Rabbi Ginsberg served three years ago as chairman of a Peoria human relations commission that helped with the integration of Negroes into a public housing project. That project, he said, "was carried out very successfully and I can't see how it could have had anything to do with the bombing."

Robert Briscoe, Jewish former lord mayor of Dublin, addressed an overflow audience in the Agudas Achim synagogue Tuesday night. His meeting to push the sale of state of Israel bonds went off without incident.

FBI Reports 'Clue' In One Of Bombings

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI, engaged in an all-out effort to help local authorities solve three recent hate bombings, was reported today to be working on possibly important evidence from one.

It involves the Oct. 5 dynamiting of the integrated high school at Clinton, Tenn.

Bricker For The U.S. Senate

His candidacy has been singled out for special opposition by union labor. It has not been singled out, on the other hand, for special support by the Republican party or the conservatives whose votes have helped him in the past.

They may not wake up in time to offset what the labor unions are hoping to do in Ohio this year. They expect to put this state in the bag, along with Michigan, so that they can decide in the future who will represent Ohio in the Senate and who will sit in the governor's chair and the General Assembly.

Organized labor thinks Ohio is ripe for picking.

Sen. Bricker knows what is afoot. He can only hope enough voters will find out by Nov. 4 to "vote scared."

THE ONE THING that could defeat Sen. Bricker is unawareness of organized labor's attempt to put Ohio in the bag in 1958.

This has been Labor's ambition for a long time. Labor almost did it in 1944 when it backed William G. Pickrel, a relatively unknown candidate, against Robert A. Taft in the race for U.S. Senate and piled up 1,483,069 votes. Taft squeaked through that one with only 17,740 votes to spare.

The unions' candidate against Taft in 1950 was Joseph T. Ferguson. But Ohio voters were wide awake in 1950. While Ferguson's union labor backers were turning out 1,214,459 votes, Taft's backers were turning out 1,645,643 votes.

These totals are vital information to the men who play for keeps in politics. They show what can be done. They set precedents for campaigns.

Sen. Bricker hopes his 1958 experience will be like Taft's 1950 experience, not Taft's 1944 experience. The political strategists of the labor unions are hoping the opposite. They are gambling on Ohio voters to stay asleep while they pop them into the bag without a struggle.

BRICKER VOTERS in 1958 must do what they did in 1952 when Michael V. DiSalle ran for the U.S. Senate. While DiSalle was getting 1,564,000 votes — a whopping total — Sen. Bricker was getting 1,874,000.

This is the only way Ohioans can prove they are not ready to be picked off by the labor union politicians who think this is the year they can take over control in Ohio. Those who disagree must vote. There must be a showdown.

THE REVIEW hopes Ohio voters will re-elect Sen. Bricker as a symbol in the struggle to keep the Reuthers and Hoffas of Michigan at arm's length in this state's politics.

Sen. Bricker thinks Ohio's best bet for the future is to maintain a favorable climate for enterprise in Ohio. He believes America's best bet is to maintain personal freedom.

He is dedicated to maintenance of the individual rights of Americans. He intends to fight creeping socialism wherever it appears. He wants strict interpretation of the Constitution and impartial enforcement of law.

He believes in a balance of power and mistrusts pressure blocs and the technique of political intimidation.

Ideas like his once were called "liberal," but today's "liberals" concentrate on liberality with other people's money. Sen. Bricker, on the other hand, concentrates on saving other people's money.

We think he should be re-elected to a third term by such a whopping majority that squanderers and socializers will have the steam let out of them. We have differed with him on some of his votes in the Senate, but we do not take exception to his principles.

It is of the utmost importance that Ohioans prove by re-electing him that their state is not ripe for picking.

Most Of The Specifications

President Eisenhower, 68 on Tuesday, has moved within striking distance of becoming the oldest man ever to live in the White House.

Andrew Jackson turned 68 two years less 11 days before leaving the White House and James Buchanan two years less seven weeks. William Henry Harrison was inaugurated 23 days after his 68th birthday. At the end of his second term on Jan. 20, 1961, the President will be 70 years old, plus three months and six days.

Yet, it is a curious fact that this energetic man with the infectious grin does not seem old to his countrymen. Even the relentless drive by the political opposition to discredit him as a natural leader has not been able to make the impression that Mr. Eisenhower is gathering years at a record-breaking pace for an American president. There is an obvious reason.

Most Americans like and admire him. They resent the political slurs that are made against him, and they resent the politicians who make them.

As far as most Americans are concerned, their president meets most of the specifications for the job he is doing. He is a great American in his own right; he didn't have to wait for the political buildup. He is the prototype of the family head who is proud of its members and who takes endless pleasure from their companionship.

There never has been any question about his right to speak for the whole country. He is the first president since George Washington to be so much bigger than the mice waiting to gnaw at his stature that they felt obliged to hold off until the two-term limit had taken him out of contention.

And even after their long delay, they still loom about as large as, well, about as large as mice when they whittle at him with their sharp little teeth. There now is a real question as to whether their sharp little teeth may not wear out before they have made an appreciable dent in the size of the biggest man they ever tried to cut down to their own size.

Not That It Matters Much Now

Some of us who have reached and passed the age of discretion feel indebted to Reuters, the British news agency, for a report on dugongs from Kenya.

Dugongs?

Mermaids, that is. The creatures that sailing-ship men conjured up on their long voyages, when they were away from home for years at a time. In Kenya, two mermaids have been tanked and will be sold to zoos. Dugongs, that is.

The dugong, Reuters explains, was responsible for the mermaid myth, because it is a mammal with a head that somewhat resembles a human head — or might to a sailing-ship man who had been away from home for a year or more. Moreover, lady dugongs are friendly and like to sit on their tails in shallow water while taking care of their baby dugongs.

It figures. About the origin of the mermaid myth, that is.

Even an old lady dugong would have been worth a second look in sailing-ship days. Besides, as we get the story, those old sailormen never were fitted with glasses and couldn't see very well anyway. The only man aboard with a telescope was the captain, and he frequently had his wife with him on long voyages.

In short, ugly words, "There ain't no mermaids, Mac. There ain't never been no mermaids. Mermaids were just the dugongs of a lot of lonely men's imaginations."

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

To the treetops, men! General Motors is out with an auto which has no steering wheel.

It has been clear that many drivers regard steering wheels as unnecessary nuisances, especially on weekends.

The new GM model has a "stick" on which are controls which steer, accelerate, apply brakes and assure something close to "Look, Mom; no hands" operation. (Come from behind that wall, folks! It isn't in production. GM is merely experimenting.)

The car-without-a-steering-wheel will be on exhibition at New York Show, and now is the time to ask GM for a written promise it will never let anybody have one.

Most accidents are due to the fact that autos already function so easily the driver has trouble keeping alert, if not awake. Once he had to keep his mind on driving, concentrating on his next move and even bother to give a signal with his arm or hand, but he now trusts the ignition system and electrical connections to do most of the work.

He isn't of much value at the wheel or with his feet near the gas pedal and brake, but the "stick" idea raises goose flesh.

The car-without-a-steering-wheel will be on the market in time. The "stick" will probably be available in a choice of colors. We fear it will provide pushbutton irresponsibility.

The natural sequence could be Detroit production of sleeping pills with aluminum trim. The possible alibi of auto drivers in the ditch, "Officer, all I know is that when I reached for the stick I grabbed an umbrella by mistake." Wonders will never cease.

The auto of 1960 may have radio music from windshield wiper and emergency brakes built into the ashtray.

U.S. GOVERNMENT scientist says we will have a man in space in from 24 to 36 months. This would be a break if it could be applied to the subway.

A "Free Cuba" banner was displayed on the field during a World Series game, and the spectator next to us exclaimed, "You mean in this inning!"

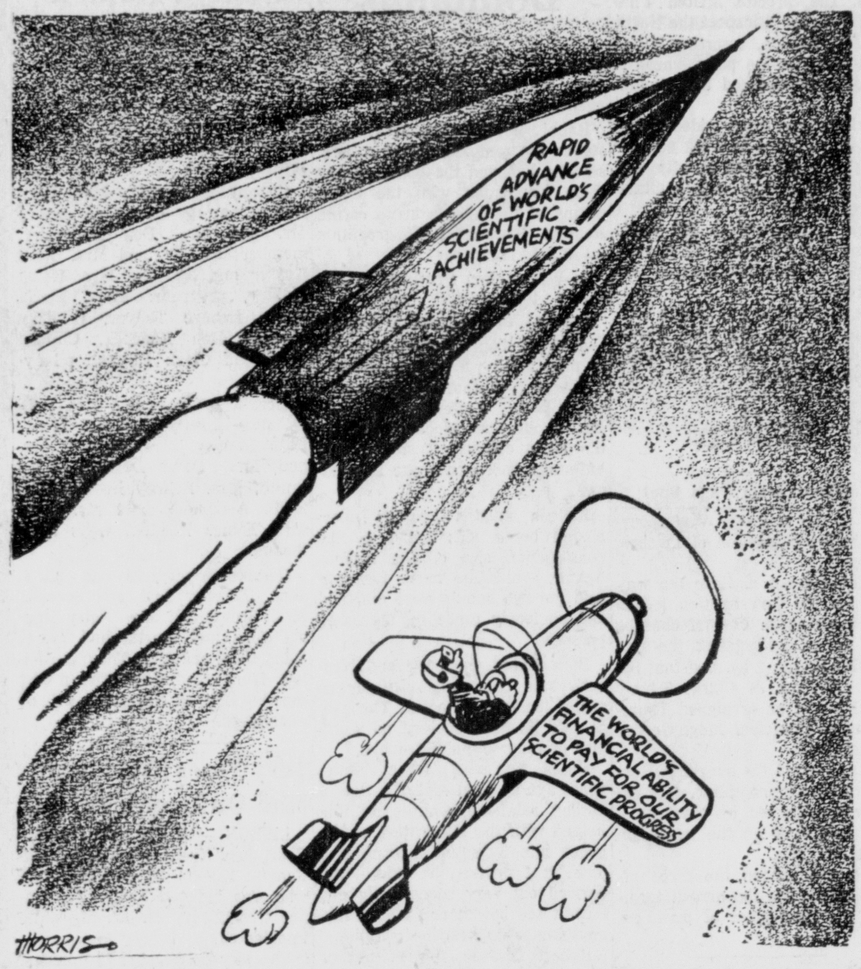

Potter Stewart, new Supreme Court Justice, at 43, was a "whiz kid" at Yale. He was chairman of Yale News and wanted to be a journalist. He was honor man all through academic courses and law school. He served in the U.S. Navy, and in naming him the President may have been determined to make the Supreme Court seem more understandable.

He is not the youngest appointee in history. Justices Joseph Story and William Johnson were on the bench in their early '30s.

A movie actor is charged with stealing 50 spark plugs from a department store. (Maybe the casting director told him he lacked fire.)

Increasingly Hard To Keep Up

Economy Is Election's Pivotal Issue

By Victor Riesel

Richard Nixon may not be running for anything but planes and trains these days—but word from his headquarters reveals that he will be campaigning against "socialism and nationalization" literally 9 out of every 10 days until election.

Victor Riesel

Word just dispatched from the Democratic headquarters to its party workers around the land is to ignore this newest Nixon stratagem. Late last week this advice was carefully put in memos to more than 3,400 Democratic party leaders ranging from state chairman to county campaigners.

This inter-party Democratic dispatch said, in effect, don't answer Mr. Nixon's charges, don't campaign against him, pound away on "bread-and-butter" issues. Talk about unemployment, the aged, social security, welfare plans and high prices. Debate social problems, yes—socialism, no.

Who has the edge on these issues is any indiscreet political analyst's guess.

THERE ARE THOSE who believe that these "bread-and-butter" questions will make or break political careers next month. At the moment the Republicans are taking the offensive. There are 64 million people working. The millions walking out of factory gates each Friday are earning a record average pay of $85.50 a week. Some five million of them have had good raises in the past six months.

Furthermore, say the GOP'ers, over 500,000 workers went back to jobs in the past month. Most of October always is good. Crops are in and the canning plants call their people back. The auto models have been retooled and the assembly lines soon will be rolling out the new cars. Sewing machines are whirring the needle-trades right out of the slack season. Christmas inventories are piling up.

How those who are prospering will vote no one can yet tell. But in city after city, as I learned in New England the other day, there are thousands of jobless—some say a total of 4.2 million. Some report half a million more.

The unemployed are concentrated in the big industrial and coal states. They can be the balance of power in the election.

Or drive through New York, as I have these past weeks, and you find that there's a powerful and militant women's vote for the earnest gubernatorial contender, Nelson Rockefeller. He's pushing Gov. Averell Harriman. But the labor opponents to the genial Republican point to more than 400,000 jobless in the Empire State.

LABOR LEADERS, campaigning 'round-the-clock, say that these will be 400,000 Democratic votes. Traditionally, most of the jobless and the jittery vote against the party holding the White House, they point out.

It's on the "bread-and-butter" front that the Republicans can expect a last minute barrage from labor headquarters in hundreds of cities. They'll attempt to knock the props from under the Republican prosperity claims.

In a score of speeches, TV and radio broadcasts, news statements and political rallies, the labor leaders and their researchers will say that it isn't October's balmy days that count. They'll say that by February there will be a cold economic winter. They'll predict over five million jobless next February or about what we had last February.

The unionists will charge that there will be deprivation in the midst of plenty. Laborleaders will pound away at a demand for the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars to redevelop "forgotten" cities.

THE UNION CHIEFS will hit hard with calls for some type of federal permanent unemployment insurance—a guaranteed jobless payment plan. The Democrats, already on record for such federal aid, will match pledge for plea with the union men.

It will be the Republican reply, voiced mostly by that sincere campaigner, U.S. Secretary of Labor James Mitchell, that this land of ours is out of the recession.

Mitchell will match Mr. Nixon highway for highway, meeting for meeting, using expert figures and staking his own reputation and political career on predictions that there will be fewer jobless and greater prosperity in February. It will be difficult to tell in October who is right. But soon enough the record will show boom or gloom.

The people will remember this political race when they go out to the 1960 sweepstakes and decide who'll win that one. And that one, after all, is the grand prize run.

Cash For The Parties

WASHINGTON

President Eisenhower has joined the ranks of Republican leaders who say or imply that socialism may result if the Democrats retain control of Congress.

The raising of this old political specter apparently is a deliberate GOP strategy born of acute shortage of campaign contributions.

Hardening of the financial arteries is not restricted to the Republican party alone. The Democrats also are finding their supporters slow with a buck this year.

But there is a basic difference between the two parties in the way they parcel out their campaign money in congressional elections. The Republicans have more central control, in Washington, while the Democrats depend on local contributions raked up by the individual candidates.

Republicans figure each of their campaign committees — national, House and Senate—needs a million dollars this year for a total of three million dollars. So far, they have collected about 40 per cent of that.

The Democrats' House committee had a $250,000 campaign budget last time. This year it has been cut to $75,000.

Eisenhower is reported to have appealed to affluent Republicans for more open-handed contributions during White House stag dinners. Tuesday, combining his 68th birthday celebration with party politics at a partisan breakfast, he said:

"We started off in 1952 to break away from the kind of government the kind of political philosophy, that wants to put all power, all direction of our economy and of our whole population, in the hands of a central bureaucracy."

Nine days ago GOP leaders went beyond that. After meeting with Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon at the White House Oct. 6, they issued a statement saying:

"Either we Americans dedicate ourselves to strengthening and preserving private enterprise, using the only dependable political instrument available—the Republican party—or we are certain to go down the left lane which leads inescapably to socialism."

Three days later, on Oct. 9, Nixon was in Columbus, Ohio, making a campaign speech. In it, the vice president argued that the Eisenhower administration had done more than its Democratic predecessors to increase Social Security benefits, raise wages and stabilize the cost of living.

Such seeming inconsistencies — warning against socialism one day and boasting of Social Security gains three days later—are what Americans generally expect in a campaign year. Former President Truman's slam-bang tactics demonstrate that no party has a patent on political doubletalk.

In this case, it appears to have a precise purpose—to yell "boo" at the people who are most afraid of ghosts. Moneyed, ultraconservative Republicans—no matter how disenchanged with Eisenhower-type "Modern Republicanism" — might be made to part with bigger checks if convinced the alternative was the socialism they so despise.

But neither party has yet solved another factor. Republicans say some of their people will not contribute because they are sure the GOP will lose and why waste money on a sure loser.

Democrats say an argument they run into is just the opposite —we're a shoo-in, and you don't need my money.

The Organized Man

By Truman Twill

The figment of imagination known as The Organization Man has been having a great deal of effect on current thought.

The effect is unreliable, for the same reason that statistics on the height and weight of that other figment — The Average Modern Woman — are unreliable.

There is no "average modern woman." There are millions of modern women, but no single one resembles the statistical image of the faceless and bodyless "average."

The Organization Man likewise is a statistical composite of traits, compulsions, habits and characteristics that have been conspicuous among conbatants in the 20th century war of survival among corporation office help. Because many of these people behave in a certain way at a certain time, the generalization that all of them behave the same way at the same time has been made. It is phony.

So, having cut down The Organization Man, meet his half-brother —The Organized Man.

He doesn't exist, either. If he did, he would be the one who joins everything, because he joined everything when he was a kid and has been collecting affiliations ever since.

He would be a social barnacle who never has spent a happy moment in his own solitary company.

On the rare occasions when he is not attending a meeting of one of his innumerable "affiliations," he is running over in his card-index mind his busy calendar of upcoming events.

By fractionating himself into three parts, he can hit one in every three events, which is enough to keep himself known but not enough to take him out of circulation. He can join three times as many worthy causes and thereby put a longer tail on his kite as he soars into prominence. The Organized Man aims to be seen.

It's lucky The Organized Man has no more existence in fact than his half-brother, The Organization Man. He would be too preposterous to put up with — a Gregarious Good, no less.

Red Dynamite

Synagogue Bombings Seen Communist Plot

The bombing of a Jewish temple in Atlanta has all the earmarks of a Communist plot. It follows the pattern of similar bombings of Jewish places of worship in Florida, at Miami and Jacksonville; in Alabama, at Birmingham and in North Carolina at Charlotte and Gastonia.

David Lawrence

When Mayor William B. Hartsfield of Atlanta calls it an "international conspiracy," he puts his finger on the fact that only by a concerted action and money from a foreign source could stooges in this country be employed to carry out bomb plots. It is significant that, in connection with almost every one of the bombings, there are anonymous telephone calls and a reference to a "Confederate underground."

The word "underground" is all too familiar in the Communist world, and it sounds as if the individuals who did the jobs are trained carefully to do exactly what they are told in every instance. They do not have versatility of mind sufficient to vary even the telephone calls.

The anti-Semitic crusade has money and is worldwide in its scope. Communists like to fish in troubled waters, and they tie up with members of all crackpot organizations they can find and use them for their diabolical ends. It has always been a mystery where these organizations and their publications get the money to carry on their persistent campaigns of vilification.

But most surprising of all is that governmental detective agencies seem never to have uncovered the international connections of these local organizations. One reason, perhaps, is that gradually the processes of detection where Communists are concerned have been weakened in this country through Supreme Court decisions and the pooh-poohing tactics of so-called "liberals."

IT IS THE same abroad. Though it is apparent that the race riots in Nottingham, England, are not characteristic in any sense of the British people, yet there are leading newspapers in England which have ridiculed the idea that any foreign influence could possibly have given stimulus or momentum to the local controversies.

There is an almost indignant defense of the Communist cult as unlikely to have done anything so improper. Indeed, there is always a tendency in some quarters in Britain to forget altogether the cases of Klaus Fuchs, who stole the atom secrets, and of Donald MacLean and Guy Burgess, who defected from the British foreign office and now sit as advisers in Moscow.

One phase of the anti - Communist battle in the United States is that too many misguided "liberals" seem to think the individual rights of Communists to preach treason and to plot against the state transcend the rights of all the people to be defended against such attacks. When congressional committees try to get witnesses to help their own government by telling the names of Communists they have known, any refusal to divulge such friendships is protected by the Supreme Court as "freedom of association."

The men charged with detecting conspiracy and crime in America are discouraged by these technical obstructions. Yet, it is well known that bombing is a Communist technique, and a good deal of practice in that sort of business has been obtained by terrorists in the Middle East. To import a few who can enlist a handful of American criminals to assist them is not a difficult job for trained Communists to handle. They have the money and the criminals at their beck and call.

THERE HAVE BEEN demands that the Federal Bureau of Investigation get busy and ferret out the wrongdoers. The FBI for some time has studied the series of bombings and has done everything it can within its limited jurisdiction.

The time has come for the intelligence agencies which operate all over the free world to cooperate and send more time and energy getting at the plots being hatched on foreign soil against them and us.

In Canada and Mexico there are, for instance, some very active survivors of the Soviet spy rings that were exposed a few years ago. In Canada in particular Communist agents have become very active recently in the distribution of their literature. Their views are echoed in important places. Mexico is a well known base of operations for Communist activity throughout this hemisphere. Argentina is another.

It is not merely inside the United States, but also outside, that detective work has to be done if conspirators who have been pulling off the series of bombings in this country are to be caught. While it is the provocation of anti-Semitism int he world which at present is a Soviet strategy, the plotters are working hard to intensify race bitterness as well as religious friction everywhere.

THE COMMUNIST purpose, of course, is to make propaganda. The objective, for example, of the bombings of synagogues is to stir up antagonisms inside the United States and to portray America before the world as denying religious freedom.

Testimony before congressional committees has disclosed Communist mischief - makers in the South who are allied with organizations ostensibly interested in agitation of racial issues.

There has been too much indifference to the facts already revealed by Senate and House investigating committees about Communist infiltration in the United States.

Letter To The Editor

Success of today may differ in substance from the success of 50 years ago. There has been no change in time, time just marches on.

Knowledge, ability, industry and determination are the essentials of success. The door of achievement has been barely opened to the Negro, regardless to his or her ability, in East Liverpool and Columbiana County. But I believe the doors of sucess will swing open if we are willing to play our part in helping to build a better government for our children and grandchildren.

Today is the day for action, and to move another step nearer the goal that lies before us, we all have to play our part.

We believe men today can be divided into classes, those who move forward and those who are going backwards. No one can stand still. It must be the inquiring of minds that find out things where the others are content with the satisfaction of merely sitting doing nothing.

I have talked to more than 95 per cent of our people here in East Liverpool, and throughout the entire county, and I have come to one conclusion: That we must, as citizens, take a firm stand to back and support the party and candidate that will support us.

Success is the reward of intelligent and presistent effort. Success just does not happen to people. It must not only be desired and wished for, it must be sought and worked for.

I believe through our hard work we can accomplish the jobs for our boys and girls here which they now have to leave town to obtain after graduating from high school and college. So let us continue to press forward and hope for a better improvement in the near future.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Opening of the Dresden Ave. section of the Youngstown—East Liverpool road was celebrated with a street dance.

The proposed city hospital tax levy was endorsed by the Kiwanis Club.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The planning committee adopted resolutions designed to place the proposed $70,000 WPA swimming pool in Thompson Park.

TEN YEARS AGO — Plans for the school to be held for county plumbers were announced by Dr. R. B. McGuire, county health commissioner.

A number of East Liverpool people "attended" the World Series game in Boston by "stratovision" which was picked up on several receivers in downtown stores. The reception ranged from "good to fair."

The fall rally and prayer retreat of the Women's Presbyterial of the Steubenville Presbytery was held in the Wellsville United Presbyterian Church.

Attendance Award Of Books Planned By PTA Federation

Books for the schools libraries will be given as attendance awards by the City Federation of Parent-Teacher Organizations to the PTA unit with the largest representation at the monthly meetings, it was decided at the initial session of the current term at Westgate School Monday night.

The program was presented in the form of a panel discussion. Mrs. Nelson Wright spoke on "The True Purpose of PTA;" Mrs. Ray Diddle led the discussion on "Plans for Future Programs," and Donald Hancock reported on membership dues asked of the affiliated groups to cover operating expenses.

Judge Louis Tobin spoke on the Child Counseling Center and urged all the associations to support the project.

During business conducted by Mrs. Lester Hall, president, Mrs. Donald Alexander read the secretary's report and correspondence. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Ruth Armstrong.

Austen Moore, executive member, gave a report on the recent Columbiana County Mental Health Clinic in Salem.

Delegates were assigned to committees and duties were outlined. They are:

Telephone, Mrs. Betty Hager, Mrs. Ormond Williams, Mrs. Donald Swoger and Mrs. Donna Morris; hospitality, Mrs. Donald Baxter, Mrs. Marvin Kinsey, Mrs. Dorothy Bjers, Mrs. Thelma Stanley and Mrs. Robert Bernstorf; awards, Mr. and Mrs. James Pryor and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rutter; nominating, Mrs. Edward Derr, Mrs. Chester Brown, Don Derrington and Herman Steffen, and program, Mrs. Diddle, Mrs. Wright and Hancock.

Mrs. Hall requested delegates to observe problems in their schools and items of major interest for use in future panel discussions.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 10, when a speaker from the National PTA Congress will be heard.

Nurses To Meet

LISBON — Joseph Schmidt of the creative arts service of the Ohio Department of Health will speak at a meeting of the Columbiana County public health and school nurses Oct. 22 at the County Health Department office. Schmidt will discuss "Creating Exhibition and Discussion of Visual Aids In Teaching Health."

Boosters Club Trustee Quits

Arthur Plate Cites Business Reasons

The Beaver Local Boosters Club Tuesday night accepted the resignation of Arthur Plate as chairman of the Board of Trustees.

He cited business reasons. Plate announced red dog will be spread on the elementary school grounds Friday at 8 a. m. (EST). Trucks and laborers are needed.

George Wilkinson, president, was named to the school Athletic Board. Delegations were present from the Elkton Parent - Teacher Organization and the Rogers Parent - Teacher Association. Richard Barnhart of Rogers announced a penny supper will be held at the Rogers School Friday night.

Jack O'Rourke, coach, spoke on the wrestling program at Beaver Local. Parents Day will be observed during the Beaver Local-Wayne football game Oct. 24.

The club will sponsor three athletic banquets this season. One for football, another for basketball and the third for all spring sports.

Foyn Wright, athletic program chairman, announced all school teams have had their pictures taken.

Mrs. Gordon Smith announced a dinner will be held at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 1, during the school fair.

Gail Williams offered prayer. George VanHorne, school executive head, spoke on the 2.1-mill operating levy to be on the Nov. 4 ballot.

Movies of the elementary school dedication were screened.

The next meeting will be Nov. 11.

Township Firemen Set Dystrophy Fund Drive

The Ohio Township volunteer fire department met in the fire hall, Monday night and George Daniels, president, conducted business.

It was announced that a fund drive for the Muscular Dystrophy Association will be conducted soon throughout the township.

A representative from the MDA addressed the group on the urgent need of funds for these victims.

The next meeting will be held in the fire hall Nov. 10.

Hotel Figure Dies

OMAHA (AP)—Eugene C. Eppley, 74, once one of the world's largest individual hotel operators, died Tuesday night. He had been ill for two years. His chain of 22 hotels was sold in 1956 to the Sheraton Corp. for 30 million dollars. Eppley was born in Akron, Ohio, and began working in Canton, Ohio.

It Was No Joke

NORTH KINGSTON, R.I. (AP) —Police Chief Burton W. Moon said he thought someone was joking in reporting the theft of a "tom-tom at the teepee." William Riley, the caller, was serious, however. Riley, a drummer, said someone stole the tom-tom he uses at the Trading Post, a tavern everyone calls the "T. P."

Fire, Explosion Destroys Cruiser, 2 Men Rescued

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Fire and an explosion destroyed a new $10,000 cabin cruiser in Lake Erie off Fairport Harbor Tuesday night. Two men who had been in the 29-foot craft were rescued by Coast-Guardmen after floating for 45 minutes in life jackets.

Clifford Hassett, 47, of Adrian, Mich., and Herbert C. Waterman, 47, of Toledo, a boat dealer who bought the cruiser earlier this month at Keyport, N. J., were enroute with it from Buffalo to Vermilion.

They said they thought gasoline had leaked into the bilges and been ignited by a spark.

Kaycees At Wellsville To Join In Fund Drive

Plans for participation in the first phase of the state youth fund campaign which ends Sunday were completed Tuesday night by Wellsville Knights of Columbus Council 507.

Returns for the campaign will be accepted at the hall Sunday between 2 and 9 p. m. (EST). Lunch will be served. John Barborak will be in charge.

Frances Bernert of Toronto, insurance field agent, will be guest speaker at the next meeting Tuesday night at 8.

James Ross is grand knight.

Nun To Teach Firemen

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Firemen of suburban Clayton will have a Catholic nun as teacher this week. Sister Helen Joseph Coerver, head of the Fontbonne College chemistry department, will give four lectures on use of the Geiger counter to detect radiation.

Sewer Fees O.K. Sought

Cumberland Council To Ask PSC Consent

NEW CUMBERLAND — City Council Tuesday night approved application to the West Virginia Public Service Commission to establish a service charge to raise funds for construction of sanitary sewers.

Council met in special session with A. R. Todd, president of A. R. Todd Associates, Wheeling engineering firm, who recommended in his preliminary report that the application be made.

Todd was contracted by Council in July 1954 to provide general supervision for designing and constructing the system. He told members that a primary disposal plant will meet the needs of the town, assuming that the population will number 2,700 by 1968.

The current population is about 2,400.

No estimated construction cost was released since Council recommended some changes be made to the proposed plan. Todd was asked to investigate the feasibility of employing the use of gravity instead of constructing lift stations in the system. Councilmen feel this would reduce construction costs.

The manner in which the two has grown presents a costly problem, since growth has been stretched out length-wise, rather than centering about one point, the group was told. Council took no other action after hearing the complete preliminary report but will meet again sometime this month to continue discussions.

Reuter Elected Head Of Ruritan At Lisbon

LISBON — Herman Reuter of Lisbon, soil conservation worker, was elected president of the Lisbon Ruritan Club Tuesday when "Ladies Night" was observed with a dinner at the Christian Church. He succeeds Jack Harrod, agriculture teacher at Lisbon High School.

Robert McIntosh, warden for the Ohio Division of Forestry, spoke on fire control and conservation of natural resources. A film depicted how forest fires are located and extinguished.

About 72 attended. The women were given a rose by the Club.

Formosa

He then drew a sharp line between urging Nationalist President Chiang Kai-shek to cut down on his forces for military reasons and for political reasons—that is, in order to move toward some kind of agreement to avoid conflict with the Communists.

Dulles said the military question simply is whether it is more effective to have Chiang's forces deployed "in their present numbers on Quemoy and Matsu or to have a greater number on Formosa, which would have greater flexibility and greater range of action under certain contingencies —and they could go back to Quemoy if the necessity came."

He also spoke of the "military question" of reducing manpower and increasing the striking power of the remaining troops on the offshore islands.

The Nationalists have openly opposed any troop withdrawal, but reports from Formosa indicated they may be resigned to the idea of fewer troops equipped with better weapons.

Ike

American industry under the Democrats.

Asked whether he subscribed to that statement, Eisenhower replied he had read the full statement before it was made public and does not remember that exact language.

The President said his recollection is that the statement said the country could be led to the left and such a course could lead eventually to socialism.

Eisenhower added crisply that in any event the statement about nationalization and socialization of industry was not his. With a trace of a smile, he said politicians do like to make things positive. As for the six-day campaign tour to the Mid-west and Pacific Coast he will start Friday, Eisenhower said the itinerary has been arranged so that he can, through regional television and radio, reach the greatest number of people possible in those areas. He made that statement when asked why he is going into such states as Iowa, Kansas, Colorado and Illinois where there are no U.S. Senate races, and is passing up Minnesota and Wisconsin where there are such races.

Dartmouth College's noted scholar, Rufus Choate, made a speeck eulogizing Daniel Webster, another alumnus, at the college on July 27, 1853. One sentence in the speech was 1,200 words long and required 10 minutes to deliver.

5 Leading Causes Of Crashes Listed In State's Survey

Police received a report Tuesday from the Ohio Department of Highway Safety listing the five major causes of traffic mishaps in the state, based on a survey covering the first half of 1958.

They are: Speeding, following other vehicles too closely, driving on the wrong side of the road, failure to yield the right-of-way and improper passing.

The county-by-county survey covered accidents on state highways in rural areas. It showed excessive speed is the most common causes of crashes in rural areas, defining speeding as either driving too fast for road and weather conditions or exceeding legal limits.

Following the car ahead too closely is the most frequent cause of urban area crashes, the report showed.

Columbiana County was listed in one phase of the report. It was one of 12 Ohio counties in which more than 10 per cent of the auto mishaps resulted from improper passing.

Gordon Jeffery, director of the state bureau, commented that the statewide accident rate is running behind 1957, although the volume of travel is the same. He said the statewide death toll may be cut by 200 in 1958 if every driver resolves to follow safety rules.

Wellsville Scout Fund Reaches Third Of Goal

Richard Brown, chairman, said $800 has been reported. The drive was officially ended Saturday but all reports have not been turned in.

Brown said no reports have been received from special gifts and industries and from the 5th-to-15th St. area in the house-to-house canvass.

said the local clays were "fairly successful."

New glazing machines have been developed, and the present boiler system for drying is being replaced by gas.

Steffens said, "If we can continue with the present program of changes in production techniques, by the end of the year we should be in pretty good shape, barring unforeseen setbacks."

Steffens reported on the financial status of the firm from April 1 to Oct. 1 when wages paid totaled $298,646, and a $6,000 payment was made on the mortgage bonds purchased as part of the refinancing. A $19,000 payment was made to the Small Business Administration from which a loan was also obtained.

Steffens said the some $96,000 working capital obtained in the refinancing in January had dwindled to $30,000 by the time production was resumed in April because of settlements made to groups outside the 50 per cent settlement agreement reached in the reorganization.

The president said the decline of working capital had been a problem since, but is expected to be relieved when the new production problem is completed.

Home Receives $500 Damage In Vandalism

Police today were checking on vandalism that caused about $500 damage in a home on Lisbon St. at the city limits.

Norman Vincent, 251½ W. 7th St., told police vandals wrecked the interior of the home sometime between Friday and Tuesday. Holes were punched through the walls with a section of pipe and a wrecking bar, varnish was spilled on floors and furniture and windows were broken, he said.

Vincent recently moved from the place, where he resided 12 years. He said he is now in the process of remodeling the home.

About the same number of persons were killed in auto accidents in 1957 as 21 years previously, according to the National Safety Council. However, the mileage death rate (number of deaths per 100 million vehicle miles) dropped from 15.1 to 5.9 in 1957.

Irish Dramatist Dies

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — Dr. Lennox Robinson, Irish dramatist and a leading member of the Abbey Theater staff for 45 years, died Tuesday night. He was 72. His best-known plays included "The White Headed Boy," "The Lost Leader" and "Curtain Up."

Child Killed By Car

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Theresa Abney toddled into the street in front of her home near here Tuesday night and her mother raced after her. Both were struck by a car and the 15-month-old youngster was killed. Mrs. Shirley Abney, 26, was injured critically.

Tidy Pinball Fund

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—One of the more obscure funds maintained by the state has a tidy amount of change in it. The fund, compiled from change in pinball machines confiscated by state liquor agents from tavern owners and others who sell liquor, now has $26,483.30 in it.

Associate hostesses included Mrs. Robert G. Stewart, Mrs. Lloyd L. Dittmer, Mrs. Arthur A. Wells, Mrs. John W. Vodrey, Mrs. Milton Wolpert, Mrs. Everett Chandler, Mrs. William H. McMurray and Miss Nell Robinson.

The meeting opened with devotions led by Mrs. Lloyd Cunningham and the salute to the flag and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner led by Mrs. Burton Kerr.

Mrs. Donald Thompson, regent, conducted the meeting and reports were heard from Mrs. John Duffy, secretary, and Mrs. Charles Haugh, treasurer. Mrs. Donald Gass, Mrs. John Frazer and Mrs. Duffy reported on the recent Northeastern District meeting held in Cleveland.

Mrs. Dean Wilhelm was appointed librarian.

Mrs. Raymond Akins, was in charge of the program and introduced Mrs. James Batey, who read an article on national defense, which is being observed this week.

Principal speaker was Mrs. Chandler, who was introduced by Mrs. Akins. Her subject was "Freedom of Education."

The next meeting will be Nov. 10 at the home of Mrs. Akins, 1617 St. Clair Ave. Mrs. Neil Shope will be in charge of the program on the subject, "American Indian."

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Miss Linda Sayre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sayre, 150 Montana Ave., and Vernon Walker of near New Cumberland were married Oct. 4 at the First Christian Church.

The Rev. E. D. Gleaton, pastor, performed the single - ring ceremony attended only by relatives. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Walker of New Cumberland R. D. 2.

Mrs. Russell Yeater of East Liverpool was matron of honor. She wore a light blue dress with black accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Russell Yeater was best man.

The bride, a 1957 graduate of Chester High School, is employed at the Herche's Drugstore. Her husband, who attended Wells High School at Newell, served in the armed forces. He is employed at the Edwin M. Knowles China Co.

The Annie Kell Friendship Class, which scheduled a party for Thursday night, has postponed the event because of the death of a member. Mrs. Jennie Pretty of St. Clair Ave. Ext. was to have been hostess.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

A prayer for Miss Agnes Cleland, society editor of the Review, who died Monday, opened the meeting of St. Stephen's Guild of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Monday night in the Parish Hall.

Mrs. Mary Paisley was devotion leader and read the collect for the 19th Sunday after Trinity and the group repeated the Lord's Prayer.

During business conducted by Mrs. Florence Smith, president, committee reports were given, including Mrs. Irene Lessel and Mrs. Paisley co - chairmen of the ways and means committee; Mrs. June Robinson, secretary, and Mrs. Gladys Bourne, treasurer.

'Laws Not Geared To It'

U.S. Termed Not Legally Prepared For Atomic Age

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The United States is not legally prepared for the atomic age.

Atty. Gen. Fred Standley of New Mexico made that statement here Tuesday before a meeting of scientists, governmental officials and industrialists on the applications of atomic energy to industry.

"No state is at this time legally prepared for industrial atomic development," Standley said. "The laws are not geared to it."

Among the legal problems to be faced, Standley said, are zoning codes which must be updated to accommodate atomic installations; Workmen's compensation laws which must be expanded to cover radiation sickness, and transportation laws which have no provision for governing the transfer of nuclear materials.

Marvin M. Mann, an assistant director of the Atomic Energy Commission's inspection program, said the majority of AEC licensees are making competent efforts to protect their employes and the public from radiation hazards and that contamination accidents have been rare.

The three-day conference sponsored by the Atomic Industrial Forum, a non-profit atomic development organization, ends today.

Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield of Kentucky told the conference that the states must stand ready to form regional compacts to aid atomic development or see the field completely dominated by the federal government.

He said the decision taken by the southern governor's conference at Lexington, Ky., last month to set up an atomic energy compact covering the 16 southern states may become a milestone in the administration of the atom.

The regional advisory council of the governor's conference is now working on a pilot compact for submission to the 1959 governor's conference, Waterfield said.

He said such inter-state compacts also would provide for orderly standardized regulatory laws governing the atom and help establish sound federal-state relationships in the field.

The religion with the greatest number of believers is Christianity — with more than 484 million Roman Catholics, about 129 million Eastern Orthodox, and about 208 million Protestants.

Chevrolets Will Offer New Styling

A complete styling transformation, along with more safety, comfort and performance, is featured in the 1959 Chevrolets, which will go on display Thursday at Mike Turk, Inc., 415 E. 6th St., East Liverpool, and Ideal Chevrolet, 409 Broadway, Wellsville.

The popular Bel Air series above is again among the models offered.

In shape, and in detail, the new styling reflects the influence of a space - conscious age. Lines sweep rearward in a virtually level plane. Tops are flatter and visibility is dramatically increased.

Appreciably lower, the overall appearance of fleetness is further conveyed by an adroitly sculptured frontal area. At the rear, horizontal wings branch out from the center of the deck in a simulation of mobility that might have been conceived on the sands of Cape Canaveral.

While the unusual appearance will draw instant admiration, Chevrolet has not neglected other phases of engineering in its bid to continue the sales popularity registered by the company in 1958.

A new six - cylinder engine, named the Hi-Thrift because of added economy through re-design in valving and carburetion, gives up to 10 per cent more mileage, plus more usable power at normal driving speeds.

Fundamental improvements in coil spring suspension, incorporating specialized controls. Refinements in the optional Level Air suspension to acquire softer, quieter operation.

Larger braking surfaces, benefitting further by flanged drums and 27 per cent more lining area provide surer stops, longer life. Tires improved for durability and reduced in rolling resistance through newly developed cords, which run cooler, offer a softer ride and last longer.

A Turboglide transmission of advanced design. One of two automatic transmissions in the 1959 line, the quality of Turboglide has been raised to a new peak.

Easier steering and the inclusion of a second, shock - resistant universal joint. A radiator increased in cooling area. A simplified, more productive electrical system.

In addition to a bold, fresh design, Chevrolet bodies for 1959 excel in comfort and structural unity. An impressive increase in passenger room is exemplified by almost five inches more width in the 5½-foot front seat.

With 20 per cent greater capacity, the trunk has been increased up to 32 cubic feet. Still another example of general commodiousness can be found in station wagons. The cargo space has been lengthened to almost eight feet.

Sedans have been reduced in height one inch; sport models two inches. Through lower body mountings and a new roof configuration, the advantage has been accomplished without sacrifice, and in some cases an actual gain, in headroom.

Emergency Radio Setup Told To CD

James Wilson explained Conelrad alerts at a meeting of Civil Defense firemen and mass feeding units of the 31st Mobile Support Group Tuesday night at the Glenmoor fire station.

Conelrad is an emergency setup by which radio stations go off the air and then return for brief periods on one of two special dial settings, thus preventing attacking airplanes from obtaining a navigational "fix" on any one community.

It was reported the instruction classes at Lisbon will be continued through the winter on the second Monday of the month. A cookout was held at Lisbon this week, and the East Liverpool group was the largest present.

The fire unit has been invited to a meeting of the Tri-State Firemen's Association Oct. 23 at the Liverpool Township East, fire station at Dixonville.

Home preparedness instruction was given by the Women's Civil Defense Council. Sam Wolfe, platoon leader, was in charge. The next meeting will be Oct. 28 when films will be screened.

An average cow in the United States produces about 6,000 pounds of milk each year.

Women Tell Builders Front Doors Are Too Commonplace

WASHINGTON (AP) — The women told the builders front doors of America's homes are too commonplace. They want "more drama" in them.

The builders are listening intently to ideas tossed around by the 83 selected women attending a three-day housing conference sponsored by the National Assn. of Home Builders and the United Industry Committee.

The women said make the doors bigger. They said natural wood is good, but they thought some gay color might be even better and suggested red and maybe aqua as starters.

The front door should have something special to reflect the taste of the people inside and be unique, they said.

Conferring in the modernistic atmosphere of the National Housing Center here, the women hold 40-minute sessions. They give their own ideas and answer questions bothering the building industry. At the blast of a whistle they take a 10-minute break and then start again.

Every word they say is being taken down in shorthand so the builders can mull it over later.

They told the builders to take the medicine cabinet off the wall above the sink—where bottles can fall out and break, and put it somewhere else—with a lock to keep youngsters from getting into it. Over the sink in its place, they advised, a big mirror.

It Takes A Winner

STATESVILLE, N.C. (AP) — After a poor start, Statesville High School's football team won three games in a row just before student body election campaigns began. Result: Each of the squad's three quarterbacks was chosen president of his class.

Workers are killed more often in accidents off the job than on, according to the National Safety Council. It says 31,800 workers die annually off the job as compared with 14,200 on - the - job accidental deaths.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Let Baby Teach Himself To Walk

Without admitting it, most parents are eager to see the baby walk as early as possible. The earlier he does so, the smarter other people will suppose he is. As a rule, the more he is urged to walk, the slower he will be to do so. You can however, without urging him, do much to develop his ability to walk.

By Garry Meyers

You can let him have opportunity to creep and pull himself up beside chairs and low tables.

But unless some older person is right with him, he may get into dangerous places or at things he can harm and be unduly hampered in his walking development.

THE PLAY pen affords the busy mother peace of mind and the baby great opportunity to learn to walk.

He will learn to pull himself up by the sides of the pen and to take just a few steps while holding fast with both hands; later with only one. Eventually, he may try to step from one side of the pen to the other.

He should have ample toys in his play pen, including small and larger cardboard boxes and an assortment of blocks and pans. He will soon discover he can stand on some of them while holding the side of the pen with one or both hands. Consider his further development of walking as he steps on or over these things in his pen.

All this occurs through his experimenting.

He may grow tired and bored if he is left alone too long in the play pen or does not have some old playthings replaced with new ones. He needs to be taken from the play pen every now and then to move about in his own way over wider spaces, when some one can keep an eye on him.

THIS IS NOT the time to hold him up on his feet and urge him to walk. You might, however, have two stout chairs close together so he can pull himself up and gradually step from one to the other when he's ready to do so.

While in the play pen, experimenting and pulling himself to his feet, taking a few steps, standing on some objects, stepping over others, he may often fall, but he will fall easily. Most of the time, he'll land on his buttocks, with his legs bending at the knees. He will rarely fall hard when he teaches himself to walk.

My bulletin, "Letting Baby And Tot Learn," may be had by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

9 Ohio Vet Units To Aid Expansion Of Defense Corps

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Officials of nine veterans' organizations have agreed to help expand the Ohio Defense Corps.

The Defense Corps is a reserve military organization which would take over the functions of the Ohio National Guard in the event the Guard is mobilized to meet a national emergency and called out of the state. At present the Corps has about 1,100 members.

Representatives of the veterans' groups meeting Tuesday with Maj. Gen. Leo M. Kreber, state adjutant general, agreed to ask their members to sign a declaration of intent to join the Defense Corps. If the Guard is called to active duty, the veterans would be asked to fulfill their pledge to join the Defense Corps.

Meeting with Kreber were state-level officials of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Amvets, Disabled American Veterans, Jewish War Veterans, Catholic War Veterans, Military Order of the Purple Heart, Rainbow Division Veterans and Veterans of World War I.

Immunizations Given 26 Summitville Pupils

LISBON—A total of 26 first grade pupils at the Franklin Local School at Summitville were examined and given immunizations at a clinic held Tuesday by Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner.

Dr. Palmer, assisted by Mrs. Mary Alice Rumberger, nurse, administered 12 smallpox vaccinations, 10 triple and two double immunizations and 3 booster shots.

The first grade clinic was held because no pre - school examination was held for the school, Dr. Palmer said.

98 At Kiwanians Dinner Honoring Wellsville Faculty

Ninety-eight attended a dinner meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the Yellow Creek Grange Hall when teachers of the Wellsville system were guests and "Family Night" was observed.

Mrs. George Lewis, president of the Teachers Association, introduced principals who in turn presented members of their faculties.

The principals include Miss Margaret Frischkorn, Garfield; Miss Isa Anderson, McKinley; William Menough, high school, and John Wolfe, Daw Junior High. Wolfe also introduced teachers of MacDonald School in the absence of John Mackov.

R. Max Gard of Lisbon was guest speaker with the topic "Gems and Where to Find Them." He displayed various types of gems found in Columbiana County.

He suggested "rock hunting" as a family hobby. It is the third largest hobby in the United States, he said.

Gard was introduced by Kenneth Bell, program chairman. Richard Jones, president, conducted business.

Paul Talbot of Hillcrest will speak on "Yellow Creek School Situation" at the next meeting Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. (EST) at Meade's Restaurant.

City Man Upsets Car In Chester Accident

The left side of a city man's 1952 sedan was damaged when it overturned on Carolina Ave., Chester, in front of the Washington School Tuesday afternoon about 1:45, police reported.

The car was driven by Ray Buzzard, 715 W. 8th St., who said he struck something in the street which caused the auto to veer sharply, cross the curb and hit a utility pole guy wire which upset it.

Buzzard was not hurt, according to Police Chief Floyd Lyons and Special Officer Clarence Lennons. Lennons drove the fire truck to the site and flushed gasoline which leaked from the auto.

GOP Has All-Veteran Team

Democrats Bid To Break Republican Hold In Ohio

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democrats are high on their chances for breaking the Republican hold on elective State House offices this year.

But an all-veteran team of GOP incumbents shows every indication of keeping the ball as the Nov. 4 election campaign heads into the final weeks.

Bucking for offices below that of governor are two seasoned Democratic campaigners and a third who acts like one. A fourth candidate with a good Democratic vote-getting name joins them this weekend on leave from military service.

At stake are the offices of lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer and attorney general. New terms are four years for the first time. Present terms are for two years.

Major importance attaches to the office of lieutenant governor because he takes over in event of a vacancy in the governor's office. Otherwise the lieutenant governor presides over the Senate during sessions of the Legislature.

Seeking a sixth term is Republican Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert of Columbus. The widely known trial lawyer served three terms between 1939 and 1945, a fourth term in 1947-49 and won election two years ago to his fifth term. He also served four terms in the General Assembly and made an unsuccessful bid for governor in 1944. He is 68.

John Donahey, 53, of Alliance, is the Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor. He is the second of six living sons of the late Gov. and U. S. Sen. A. V. (Vic) Donahey but never has held public office. He sought nomination for U. S. senator in 1952 and nomination for state treasurer two years later. In 1956, he won the nomination for treasurer but lost in the general election. This year Donahey beat six other candidates to gain nomination for lieutenant governor.

The secretary of state's race pits a political unknown with a well known name against Republican Ted W. Brown, who seeks a fifth consecutive term.

The Democratic nominee is Asher W. Sweeney of Salem, 37-year-old Army captain who dons civvies during his annual leave to campaign. The former steel company attorney rose from the ranks of lieutenant during South Pacific service in World War II and was recalled to active duty during the Korean conflict.

Former secretaries of state with the same name were Democrats John E. Sweeney of Cleveland, 1941-43, and Charles F. Sweeney of Wakeman, Erie County, 1949-51.

Brown, born 52 years ago in Springfield, formerly served as Clark County recorder and held an administrative post in the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles. He received American Heritage Foundation awards in 1952 and 1956 for the best national record of any official in the education of voters and in arousing voter interest in elections.

The race for state treasurer lies between Roger W. Tracy of Columbus, GOP incumbent seeking a fifth term, and Demcrat Joseph T. Ferguson. The Democrat was an opponent in previous elections of both Tracy and his father, the late Joseph T. Tracy, state auditor between 1921 and 1937. Ferguson was state auditor between 1937 and 1953.

Tracy, 55, became state treasurer in 1950 after trying to unseat Ferguson as auditor in 1944 and 1948 elections. Before his election, Tracy was a state examiner, finance director of the Cleveland Heights public school system and a cost analyst for the U. S. Signal Corps.

Ferguson ran unsuccessfully in 1928 for the auditor's job, then held by the elder Tracy, and for state treasurer in 1930, 32 and 34. After he became auditor in 1937, Ferguson ran unsuccessfully for governor in 1942 and U. S. senator in 1950. He could do that without risking his job because the auditor served for four years, instead of two, and those elections came in mid-term.

After his 1952 defeat for a fifth term as auditor, Ferguson tried in 1954 to unseat Tracy as treasurer. Two years later he failed in an effort to regain his post as auditor and last year met defeat in a bid for the job as Columbus city auditor. A native of Perry County, Ferguson is 66.

Republican Atty. Gen. William Saxbe, 42, is opposed for a second term by Mark McElroy, Cleveland Democrat waging his first statewide race. McElroy, 52, formerly served in both houses of the Ohio Legislature and as a Cleveland city councilman. He made an unsuccessful bid for mayor of Cleveland last year. An attorney since 1934, he is a graduate of Western Reserve Law School.

Saxbe practiced law in Mechanicsburg after graduation from Ohio State University Law School. A bomber pilot in World War II, Saxbe is a lieutenant colonel in the Ohio National Guard. He served four terms in the Ohio House, the last as speaker in 1953-54. During his last term he campaigned unsuccessfully for the Republican nomination in the race for the U.S. Senate seat left vacant by the death of Robert A. Taft.

Salaries of the secretary of state, treasurer, and attorney general are $15,000 a year. The lieutenant governor receives $8,000 annually.

Ex-Pen Warden Dies

FALLS CITY, Neb. (AP) — Joseph L. O'Grady, 81, of Denver, warden of the Nebraska Penitentiary from 1935 to 1941, died of a heart attack Monday. He was born in Dawson, Neb.

George Washington met and married Martha Custis near West Point. But, this West Point isn't the military academy. It's a town in Virginia.

Right-To-Work Issue Stirs Things Up

Ohio Vote Has Politicians Guessing

By ART PARKS

Even seasoned politicians are having their troubles figuring the outcome.

Right now, the Ohio capitol is solidly Republican from cellar to cupola. All officeholders from Gov. C. William O'Niell on down seek re-election, not for two-year terms as in the past, but for four-year terms. Another GOP stalwart John W. Bricker, is a candidate for a third U.S. Senate term.

This strange and fascinating campaign, in the opinion of competent observers, appears to be shaping up in this singular pattern:

Ohio voters probably will write into the state constitution a right-to-work section—a provision prohibiting union shop contracts which require union membership as a condition for holding a job.

But Republican Gov. O'Neill, who is stumping for the proposal, appears on the ragged edge of defeat after only one term in office.

His Democratic challenger, Michael V. DiSalle, who personally opposes the union shop prohibition, sees victory finally within his grasp despite a trouncing by O'Neill in 1956.

And Bricker, who waited until Tuesday night to take a public position on the constitutional proposal, appears a cinch to coast to another victory, this one over former Ohio Congressman-at-large Stephen M. Young, Democrat.

Young has opposed the amendment from the first.

Republicans who control the Ohio delegation in the U.S. House 17-6 and both houses of the Ohio Legislature are plainly scared—but hoping for the best.

Why, after rolling up huge majorities in 1956, are they running scared this year? Three reasons:

1. They fear that a Democratic trend, noted nationally, has seeped into Ohio. They recall that for the first time in a generation Democrats outvoted Republicans in the May primaries—by 100,000 votes.

2. They expect organized labor's desperate campaign to stave off the right-to-work proposal will lure many union members to the polls. Republicans figure the unionists aren't going to walk out of the polling places without marking their ballots for candidates as well as issues. Among union members, the GOP further figures, there are more Democrats than Republicans.

3. Voter registration, in the populous counties which require it, is at a record high for a non-presidential election year. Election officials say the right-to-work issue is responsible. True, they say, many Ohioans registered so they would be able to vote for it, but the big push for registrations was among the groups fighting it.

O'Neill was the golden boy of Ohio politics when he was elected governor two years ago at the age of 40. He already had 12 years in the Legislature and six years as attorney general under his belt.

Beset by a series of public relations bobbles on relatively minor issues, O'Neill suffered a heart attack early this year. He recovered quickly, but some dissatisfaction with his administration within his own party was indicated in the May primary when Charles P. Taft racked up 36 per cent of the Republican vote without campaigning.

Unquestionably, O'Neill has regained some of his political losses in the months since that low ebb.

DiSalle, once known nationally as President Truman's roly-poly, jovial director of price stabilization, has shed most of his excess weight. The joking is under wraps and his mustache is gone, too.

Already this year, he has visited each of Ohio's 88 counties at least twice, some of them many times. The 50-year-old Democrat seems to prefer a small group or a microphone to a large audience.

O'Neill seems to love big crowds and his campaign aides promote them for him. He has been known to have his picture taken individually with 4,000 to 5,000 persons in a single day at a big political rally. This is one of his favorite campaign gimmicks. Each person photographed with the governor receives copies a few weeks later.

Maintenance Workers Strike Phone Concern

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Supervisors manned switchboards at the Warren Telephone Co. today and long distance person - to - person service was on an emergency basis following a strike by maintenance men.

Picket lines were set up Tuesday when 70 repairmen, members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, walked off the job.

No negotiations have been scheduled between the company and the union, which has been working without a contract since Oct. 1.

Local and long distance dial service was not affected by the strike.

County Acts To Name Permanent Home Head

LISBON — Columbiana County Commissioners Tuesday asked the Ohio Civil Service Commission at Columbus to conduct an examination for an eligibility list from which a superintendent can be named for the Columbiana County Home. The superintendent selects the matron and the combined position pays him $250 a month and $150 for the matron.

Russell V. Phillis of Salem R. D. 3 was appointed provisionally as superintendent Sept. 1, succeeding Ray Adam who retired after serving 17 years.

Took Heavy Dose Of Radiation

Charlie, Walking Medical Mystery, Says He's Lucky

CINCINNATI (AP) — When Charlie Johnston gets up in the morning, he peers sharply in the mirror and figures he's one of the luckiest men alive.

Charlie is a shipyard worker from Quincy, Mass., here for the convention of the Shipbuilding Workers Union. He is also a walking medical mystery.

He was at work one day two years ago and he took a heavy dose of radiation from radioactive cobalt.

He figures that somehow part of the radiation was absorbed before it got to him. But he spent a lot of sleepless nights first.

On this day he was using the cobalt to check a weld on a propellor shaft strut.

After clearing the area of personnel, the cobalt pellet was shifted to position by remote control, from a lead safe. A spring was supposed to pull the pellet back.

"My safety film badge showed normal, and the safety lights were on," he said. "It was before we had geiger counters."

But something happened to the spring. The hot cobalt pellet was pulled only part of the way back.

"I was getting ready for my second exposure when I felt somebody grab me by the leg.

"It was the Massachusetts state inspector. He had a geiger counter and it was clicking away, showing 780 milli-roentgens per hour. We're not allowed to be exposed to a maximum of 300 in a 40-hour week.

"They rushed me to a hospital and took a blood count right away. At the same time, they sent my film badge to the tracer lab to find out how bad the exposure was.

"It took a couple of days, and I can tell you they were mighty bad days. Everybody was pretty worried about it.

"But the film badge showed I'd taken only 45 MR's."

That didn't stop the checking. A company doctor and his own doctor checked him once a week for a long time. The badge had been pinned on his shirt and there was no telling how big a dose his head or hands or legs might have taken.

"I spent a good many sleepless nights at first. But after a while, things eased up. The blood counts didn't show any danger symptoms."

But he remembers, "It was a lucky break that that inspector happened to come along when he did. I think I'm lucky to be around."

3 Roads Of Destiny For U.S. Described By Industrialist

CLEVELAND (AP)—All-out nuclear war, continuation of the cold war or an agreement and accommodation with the Communist world are "the three roads of destiny for the United States today," Cyrus S. Eaton told the Cleveland Advertising Club at a noon luncheon today.

The industrialist described his six-week trip to Europe, his visit in the Soviet Union and his 1½-hour meeting with Premier Khruschev.

It is the unanimous opinion of 80 scientists from 22 countries that 90 per cent of our people and all our great cities would be wiped out by all-out nuclear war, Eaton said.

"The greatest danger we face is that the people of the Soviet Union and China, numbering almost a billion, will be led to believe that the west is determined on their destruction and that they must fight in self-defense."

He said, "The odds are in favor of this road to destiny."

A continuation of the cold war and "pouring out money on unstable nations all over the world" will result in a taxation burden that "Will bust us . . . (and) . . . will be the end of private investment and free enterprise," Eaton said.

"There is a third road of destiny and that is to reach an agreement and accommodation with the Soviet Union and peoples Republic of China," the 74-year-old financier continued.

"I am convinced that the people of the Soviet Union want peace and that their government would like to terminate the cold war and turn their resources to raising the standard of living, improving the educational system and their agricultural potentialities," he added.

"For centuries the people of China have been the most peace-loving inhabitants of the world. We can deal with them if we try."

Niday's Defense Says He'll Admit Fatal Shooting

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP)—The defense attorney for Lewis B. Niday says Niday will not deny that he fatally shot Mrs. Florence Cowdry.

Niday's first degree murder trial opened Tuesday in Common Pleas Court before a jury of seven men and five women. He was indicted for slaying of Mrs. Cowdry and her husband George, 30, outside a Marietta tavern last Aug. 23. He is standing trial now only for Mrs. Cowdry's death.

Defense counsel Charles K. Heckler said in his opening statements that Niday, while not denying Mrs. Cowdry's slaying, was of such low intelligence that he could not have deliberately plotted her death.

Washington County Prosecutor Randall Metcalf in his opening remarks told the jury that the state will prove that Niday had once lived with Mrs. Cowdry and was jealous of her. He said evidence will include love letters from Niday to Mrs. Cowdry, written while Niday was in Florida.

The prosecution has indicated it will ask the death penalty.

Color In Rising Profits

Recovery Brings Pleasing Flush To Business Firms

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The recovery is bringing a pleasing flush to many business firms today. It's the touch of color they love—rising profits.

And the Wall Street bulls can point with pride too at this measure of justification of their bidding up of stock prices.

Earnings for the July, August and September quarter, now starting to flood in, show many corporations doing better than they did in the first part of the year. A sizable number also report doing better this year than last.

General Electric, for example, reports its third-quarter profits set a record for the period, and were 6 per cent higher than in the July-September period of last year, although sales still trailed last year by about 4 per cent.

Giant American Telephone & Telegraph shows a nice profit gain over last year. Most utilities, in fact, are expected to report more profits than a year ago, reflecting the steady increase in household use of light and power offsetting any drop in industrial use.

Increasnig numbers of corporations are predicting that the pick-up in the third quarter will be accelerated in the fourth, bringing the total for 1958 up with or perhaps ahead of 1957.

The Department of Commerce put the first-quarter profits at an annual rate of 15½ billion dollars. The bettering picture now leads it to estimate the total for the year will be about 18 billion.

Many textile firms, for example, are looking up. Among those showing a better thrid quarter this year than last (based on fiscal rather than calendar years) are J. P. Stevens, Wyandotte Worsted, Indian Head Mills and American Enka.

Minneapolis - Moline reports a strikingly better quarter this year than last, and Caterpillar tractor is well ahead, while Deere and J. I. Case report results for the first nine months top the 1957 period nicely.

Beatrice Foods reports a better three months this year. So do Safeway and Federated Department Stores.

Aliquippa Driver Hurt In City Truck Crash

An Aliquippa motorist suffered contusions of the face when his car collided with a truck of the Smith & Phillips Co. on the Georgetown Rd. in Green Township Tuesday at 10 a. m.

The Rochester Barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police said Francis Halliday, 34, swerved to avoid the truck, which was stopped partly on the highway about to enter a sideroad. Halliday's car struck the guardrails then bounced back into the truck, driven by Clayton Cunningham, 20, of Bloomfield Rd.

Dinner Slated For Chamber

Fall Meeting Nov. 19 To Include Program

The Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual fall membership meeting Wednesday, Nov. 19, at the Country Club, it was announced Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The meeting will feature a dinner and program. Arrangements will be made by the banquet committee, headed by John Pinney. Other details will be announced later, the Chamber said. In addition to its annual meeting early each year, the Chamber generally has dinner meetings each fall and spring.

Arrangements also were announced for a joint meeting of the Chamber's Upped Ohio Valley Development Council committee and its industrial development committee on Monday, Oct. 27, in the conference room at the Ohio Power Co. building. Plans for the meeting were announced by Winston A. Porter, new chairman of the UOVDC committee. Mike Turk heads the industrial development committee.

The public relations committee reported to the board on a get-out-the-vote campaign it is sponsoring among the members for the Nov. 4 general election in conjunction with a drive sponsored by the Junior Chamber. The committee, of which C. W. Gerster is chairman, already has sent a letter to all Chamber members urging them to take an active part in the general election.

The safety committee reported on a first aid instructors' course which it sponsored recently in cooperation with the Red Cross Chapter. It also reported on its participation in the local observance of National Fire Prevention Week, which closed Sunday. Alvin Arner heads the safety committee.

Wendell H. Vodrey reported on retail merchants' activities. The board agreed to send representatives to the annual meeting of the Ohio Chamber Nov. 20 at Columbus.

Atty. Francis H. Lang, chairman of the roads and streets committee, reported on a meeting which he attended at Pittsburgh designed to co-ordinate highway projects in western Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio and northern West Virginia.

Columbus's ship, the Santa Maria, was 80 feet long. Today's de luxe liner Queen Elizabeth is 1,031 feet long.

Club To Hear Pastor

SALINEVILLE — The Rev. Arvid Kuitunen of Greenford will speak on "American By Choice" at a meeting of the Ruritan Club Thursday night at 6:30 (EST) at the Methodist Church.

OSU Enrollment Up

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Enrollment at Ohio State University is up for the autumn quarter. But it probably would have gone higher if it weren't for the $15-a-quarter tuition hike and tougher entrance requirements, said Dr. Donald Thompson, executive dean of special services. Unofficial figures released Tuesday show an enrollment of 23,164 this autumn, an increase of 549 over last year. The figure breaks down to 16,619 men and 6,545 women.

Nixon, U.S. Brass To See It

U.S. Space Ship Slated For Public View Today

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A rocket ship designed to carry man to outer space and back will be rolled out for public view today.

Vice President Nixon and a shiny array of governmental brass will be on hand for the ceremony, the first public debut ever staged for an experimental plane.

The new supership, the X15, is expected to make its maiden flight in January. Soon thereafter it will begin streaking through the sky—a stainless steel needle with its tail on fire—on test hops at speeds that may range up to 4,500 miles an hour.

One day, if all goes well, the X15 will blast up to its maximum altitude, estimated at 400 miles above earth, and man will have reached the threshold of the stars.

There, in the satellite zone, the pilot will push his ship's nose over and try to get back to earth—alive.

As the thickening atmosphere begins to drag at his craft, this spaceman will see something no human has ever seen before: the polished metal skin of the X15 will glow, then turn cherry red from the thousands of degrees of heat building up along the surfaces of its stubby wings.

If the ship holds together—if the pilot does everything just right—he will land safe. If ship or pilot fail, a smoking cinder high in the sky will mark the spot where another hero died.

When will this all-out effort take place?

Nobody knows. Space boss Roy W. Johnson recently disclosed plans to shoot a man into space within the next 24 to 36 months and many assumed he was talking about the X15.

Who will the man be?

Lean-lipped Scott Crossfield, 37-year-old test pilot who was the first to fly at twice the speed of sound, has been chosen as the first to take the X15 aloft.

Actually, there are three X15s, and two other pilots will take part in the long series of tests. The others are Air Force Capt. Robert White and Joseph Walker of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics. Which will be the first man to reach outer space is anybody's guess.

13 From County Attend Area Forestry Session

D. V. Beede of Lisbon R. D. 3, Glenwood Sanor of Beloit R. D. 1 and Frank Dutcher of Rogers received tree farm awards for outstanding work in forestry and farm woodlot management. The Ohio Forestry Association presents these awards each year.

The program included discussion of woodlot management and Beede participated in one.

Adlai Gives His Views On Foreign Plan

NEW YORK (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson says, "We must make our own foreign policy and not permit it to be made for us."

As he made the statement he said Americans are united in the belief that U.S. commitments to defend Formosa should be honored.

What differences of views exist, he added, relate to Quemoy and Matsu, which he described as "hardly defensible."

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) agreed with Stevenson's appraisal of the American people's attitude at a news conference Tuesday night.

Also at the news conference with the two-time presidential nominee and Humphrey were three other Democrats—Gov. Averell Harriman, running for re-election; Manhattan Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan, candidate for U.S. senator from New York; and former U.S. Sen. Herbert S. Lehman of New York.

Stevenson said the New York state election is regarded by the country and the world as a referendum on the foreign policy of the Eisenhower administration.

For this reason, Stevenson said, it is important that New York state have a Democratic victory Nov. 4 to demonstrate the anxiety which he said the people feel about the conduct of the nation's foreign policy.

'Voice Of Democracy' Contest Winner Named

Cynthia Pinney was named winner of a "Voice of Democracy" contest held Tuesday morning at Chester High School.

Mrs. Ralph Hobbs, Mrs. C. O. Comm and R. M. McFarland, principal, were judges of the six contestants who read their scripts on the school public address system.

The other contestants were Clifford Stone, who placed second, Doris Bourne, Jane Hoyt, Nancy Crawford and Jerry Linger. Miss Pinney will compete with Hancock County winners at an event to be held at Weirton.

Train-Car Collision Claims Third Victim

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) — A train-car collision here has claimed its third victim with the death of an 18-year-old Elyria girl.

Antoinette Mazzeo died Tuesday night in Elyria Memorial Hospital. Her father, Vito, 40, and brother, Richard, 13, were killed in the crash Saturday afternoon.

A New York Central passenger train smashed into the Mazzeo car at the Abbe road crossing and brushed it off the tracks after carrying it about 50 feet.

Entertainment At Post-Prom Fete To Include Variety Acts

The Post-Prom Committee said variety acts and music will comprise the entertainment to follow the Midland High School senior dance Nov. 14.

The party will be held from 1 to 5 a. m. in the United Steelworkers Building following registration at midnight after the school dance, which will be held from 9 to 12 in the high school auditorium.

Mrs. Maldwyn Evans is chairman. Raymond Stowitzky, entertainment chairman, said the program will include Lou Lavelle's Orchestra of Pittsburgh furnishing music for dancing, the Kentuckians, recording artists, an acrobatic act and a surprise act.

Registration will be held from midnight to 1 a. m. in the USW hall. After the deadline, the doors will be locked and no one will be allowed to enter or leave.

Parents will be notified if any couple fails to appear at the hall by the deadline. Requests by parents to permit students to leave before 5 a. m. must be in writing and a telephone request must be made to a member of the registration committee. Parents must call for students wanting to leave before 5.

Mrs. Grover Epley, food chairman said the menu to be served before the entertainment will consist of "chicken in the rough," shoestring potatoes, honey, hot rolls, coleslaw, strawberry short cake with whipped cream, pop, milk and coffee.

The committee is comprised of the following officers: Mrs. Evans, chairman; Mrs. John Nunn, secretary, and Mrs. Alfred L. Steff, treasurer.

They were assisted in planning the party by the Board of Directors, Mrs. Joseph Benek, Mrs. Charles Petties, Mrs. Mitchell Disdore, Dr. Zanvil Sigal, Stowitzky and Michael Hohan.

Committee chairmen are Mrs. Epley, food; Mrs. Benek, dining-room and decorations; Stowitzky, entertainment; Mrs. John Shovlin III, program; Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Petties, ways and means, and Mrs. Steff, publicity.

Stowitzky and Mrs. Shovlin are high school faculty members.

Dr. Sigal and Mrs. Disdore are co-chairmen of the telephone committee.

The Midland High School administration, faculty members, Board of Education and members of the contributing organizations will be invited to attend the party in the USW Building, along with the seniors and their guests.

The union hall will be decorated in the theme used at the high school as the setting for the formal.

The committee met Monday night and the next will be Nov. 10 at 7:30 p. m. in the union hall when plans for the party will be completed.

Lausche Slated To Give 3 Talks Backing DiSalle

CLEVELAND (AP) — Three speeches in southwestern Ohio next week will be made by U. S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche on behalf of Michael V. DiSalle's candidacy for governor, DiSalle headquarters has announced.

Other bookings probably will be made later, a DiSalle spokesman said. Lausche made his first major campaign appearance in DiSalle's behalf at Warren about two weeks ago.

The former Democratic governor from Cleveland will plug the former Toledo mayor's gubernatorial bid on Oct. 20 at Urbana, at a Democratic rally in Middletown on Oct. 22 and in a televised speech in Cincinnati Oct. 22.

In a luncheon speech here Tuesday, DiSalle said Ohio's present 350 - million - dollar road building program was originated under Lausche's administration in the Statehouse.

"Not one single ribbon has been cut on any new highway program conceived and executed in 20 months of the O'Neill administration, and the Republicans can't dispute this," DiSalle said.

Cologne, the Cathedral City on Germany's Rhine, was founded 2,000 years ago by the Roman armies of Caesar. Its first name was "Colonia."

Playhouse 90 Portrays Season Of Wine

Around the corridors, there are wisecracks about CBS being the drunk network. So far, there have been "Harvey," "The Day of the Wine and the Roses" and "Time of Your Life," all explorations of various aspects of the world of booze, no two at all alike and all of them quite wonderful. A couple years ago, "Playhouse 90" did the Helen Morgan story, another boozy tale, and it was pretty great, too.

John Crosby

No doubt about it, alcohol is dramatically powerful stuff and it's certainly being exploited to the full.

"Time of Your Life" on "Playhouse 90" last week is William Saroyan's alcoholic whimsy about life in a San Francisco saloon and it has the warm, whiskyish glow of an afternoon (or maybe many afternoons) spent right on the premises.

Saroyan writes about drunks with compassion, understanding and solid personal research and, I might add, Jackie Gleason plays the hero the same way.

"I HAVE SEEN three Joes in three different productions of "Time of Your Life."

In the original production on Broadway, Eddie Dowling seemed to be playing God.

In the revival some years ago at City Center, Franchot Tone scaled the omniscience down a little but he seemed to be playing at very least an archangel.

Gleason, on the other hand, was the most warmly human of the three. Gleason simply was playing a kindly, rather eccentric and well-heeled drunk, not a visitation from another world.

I'm not all sure this is what Saroyan had in mind, but it sure made the character pleasanter and the events in that saloon more earthy and reasonable.

Saroyan's view of life, expecially San Francisco saloon life, is sentimental and more than a little improbable. The late Wolcott Gibbs once wrote that his dialogue was like the speech of a drunk, ranging from brilliant to exasperating and even incomprehensible.

But there was some good editing done on the TV version, preserving the best values and some of the great exchanges of the play, and cutting out some of the untidier excesses.

THE LINES themselves have a boozy magic not seen at their best in cold print. "War! War! I hate war! I move to Sacramento." Or: "There's no foundation all the way down the line." Or: "Did you ever fall in love with a midget weighing 39 pounds?"

The play itself is a one long nonsequitur. A prostitute who dreams of life on a farm. A guy who plays the pinball machine and finally hits it for six nickels. A comedian whose only flaw is he isn't funny.

They don't add up to dramatic coherence—but coherence is one quality you mustn't expect in a saloon.

Gleason was surrounded by a marvelous cast. Betsy Palmer cast her own warm glow over the part of the prostitute. Dick York was intense and human as the truck driver who loved her. James Barton, though occasionally inaudible, was ferociously funny as the trapper in love with a 39-pound midget. And Bobby Van was agile as the hoofer who wasn't funny.

The saloon itself came across as a place that had been thoroughly lived in and enjoyed.

"PLAYHOUSE 90" now has done three plays this season—"The Plot To Kill Stalin," "The Days of Wine and Roses" and this one—and they have all been beautifully cast and produced and played.

Each script—the first two were TV originals—has been different and strikingly powerful in various ways. "The Days of Wine and the Roses" was another tale of alcohol, but here alcohol was not the friend of mankind but the villain.

It was the story of a couple whose marriage was promoted by alcohol, later enlivened by it, and still later wrecked by it. The husband finds redemption in Alcoholics Anonymous. The wife still pursues the grape as the story ends.

It was a powerful script, single-minded and inexorable and deeply moving.

Piper Laurie as the drunken wife gave a performance that already is being mentioned for awards, though the season is yet young. The script, incidentally, was by J. P. Miller, who did a thorough job of research before writing it.

Anyhow, "Playhouse 90" has run up a very good score on its first three productions and we all devoutly hope it can keep up the pace.

This Thursday the play will be "The Long March," starring Jack Carson and Mona Freeman, written especially for "Playhouse 90" by Roger Hirson from the novel by William Styron, directed by one of the best directors around, Delbert Mann, and produced by one of TV's top producers, Fred Coe.

Chester Area Children Suffer Scalds Of Feet

Two Chester area youngsters suffered scalds of the feet when hot water spilled on them at home Tuesday night and were treated at City Hospital, where two others were treated yesterday after separate mishaps.

Kathryn Heddy, 12, and Jim Heddy, 8, children of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heddy of Chester R. D. 1 were scalded when a pan of hot water tipped over and splashed on them.

Police Chief Jails Mayor In Feud, Fuss

Aurora, Ill., Head Cited At Meeting On Disturbance Count

AURORA, Ill. (AP) — Mayor Paul Egan, who has been feuding and fussing with the police chief he fired but who has refused to quit, was jailed Tuesday night—by the chief.

Egan, the controversial and publicity-minded chief executive, stayed in his cell about five hours, long after his bond of $200 was posted. He had been charged with disorderly conduct.

The 60-year-old mayor wouldn't leave until bond for four college youths had been posted. They had been arrested when they refused to disperse from the mayor's emergency citizen's meeting. Police broke up the meeting, declaring it an unlawful assembly.

The stumpy little mayor put up a brief struggle.

Egan had called the meeting to organize a law enforcement group to replace the city's 68-man police force, which he also has fired.

He was in the midst of a tirade against the world in general and Police Chief Donald Curran in particular when the chief and eight policemen walked into the Council chamber.

"We got 10,000 people in America worse than anything they've got in Russia," Egan told the crowd of about 400. "And that Curran is the worst criminal in the whole world. He's worse than Khrushchev."

Curran, speaking over a portable loud-speaker, drowned out the mayor's words, as he said: "Mayor Egan, I arrest you in the name of the law for disorderly conduct and creating a disturbance."

"You'll hear about this," Egan shouted as the cops seized him. "This is going to be the most costly thing you ever did."

The mayor's troubles with the police erupted about three weeks ago when he fired Curran and the police force for failing to clamp down on bingo. But the City Council, voting 4-1, backed Curran and the police force. Egan's efforts to take charge have been frustrated on every front.

Fairview PTA Invotes Groups To Meeting

Invitations have been sent to the South Beaver, Brighton and Industry Township Parent-Teacher Associations to attend the Fairview PTA meeting Thursday in the Fairview School in Ohio Township.

Lacy Cummings will be the moderator for a symposium. A discussion on, "Rural Needs of a Local Doctor and How to Obtain One," will follow. There will be a question-and-answer period.

Father's Night will be observed. Refreshments will be furnished by the eighth grade mothers and served by Mrs. Michael Selac and the hospitality committee.

The Executive Board of the PTA will entertain teachers and School Board members and their wives and husbands at a coverdish dinner tonight at 6:30 in the school.

Salineville Crossing Work Delayed Week

SALINEVILLE — The scheduled start of improvement of the E. Main St. crossing of the Pennsylvania Railroad Monday has been delayed until next week, according to M. E. Walker of Alliance, district track supervisor.

Walter advised Mayor Karl Lindner yesterday some of his crew have been assigned this week to a ballast tamping project, and the crossing work has been postponed until next Monday.

Band Leader Sued

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Singer Dee Keating is suing her former husband, band leader Ray Anthony, for $5,625 in support payments. Miss Keating's complaint said Anthony has paid her nothing since last April 28 although he agreed to pay $225 weekly for life or until she remarried.

Gets 15-Cent Loan

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—An elderly man walked into a savings and loan association office here, seeking to borrow 15 cents to ride a bus home. An employe gave him the money from his own pocket. The man returned a day later and repaid the loan.

Applications Still Open For Air Academy Test

Applications still are available to young men in the 18th Congressional District interested in taking a Civil Service Commission examination for entrance to the Air Force Academy, Rep. Wayne L. Hays announced. The test will be given Nov. 17.

The examination is open only to candidates designated by members of Congress, and is used to aid senators and representatives in selections of appointees to the 1959 class.

Young men interested in taking the exam, other than those already registered, may contact his office at Flushing, Phone 2741, or send a note giving their legal address and birth date, no later than Friday.

Library Head Talks To PTA

Group At South Side Told Books Help

Miss Elizabeth Scott, librarian at Union High School in Burgettstown, discussed "The Value of Our School Library" at a meeting of the Parent - Teacher Association of South Side Schools Monday night in the elementary school near Hookstown.

A question - and - answer period followed her discussion. The program theme was "Traveling Through Our Book Shelves."

A committee to investigate the possibility of aiding the library was appointed by Charles Ryland, president.

The association also agreed to erect the playground equipment for the elementary school. The committee includes Robert Butterfield, George Thompson, Harry Lutton and Norman Brooks.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Fay Septer and Lutton. Lunch was served.

At the executive committee meeting preceding the general session, Mrs. Virginia Powell, ways and means chairman, announced the birthday calendar will be the group's only fund - raising project until after the first of the year. Another project will be launched in February.

The group also agreed not to make any donations to other groups until the close of the school year.

Mrs. Bruce Hobbs, program chairman, distributed programs for the year and announced a different leader will preside at each meeting.

At the next meeting Nov. 10, Mrs. Jack Moore will be the leader and the theme will be "Sharing the Old With the New." A film, "The Other Half of the Team," will be screened and Mrs. John Stewart of the Beaver County Chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association will speak.

Firemen Called When Refrigerant Escapes

City firemen were called to the Diamond Restaurant, 521 Market St., at 5:15 a. m. today when fumes from an ammonia refrigerant being removed from an old cooling system escaped and forced workers from the building.

Firemen, during a recent inspection, had declared the old cooler was unsafe and ordered it removed. The workers were draining the liquid refrigerant from the system with a hose.

Amateur Radio Operator Asks: Sputnik 4 Up?

The 59-year-old Melton said he heard a new signal Tuesday night at intervals of 100, 105 and 117 minutes. Melton, who listens almost nightly for Sputnik No. 3, insists it is a new signal. "Sputnik 3 sounds like a slow letter A," he said. "This one resembles a fast T, about four dashes a second."

He said he first heard the radio signal Monday morning and it has been growing stronger. The Naval Research Laboratory in Washington said it had not received any new signals.

Melton said one of Tuesday night's signals came two minutes after the expected "beep" of Sputnik III. The signal comes in on the same frequency as Sputnik III —20.005 megacycles, he said.

Reservists To Receive Formation Instruction

Cpl. Thomas Stillwagon and Pfc. John Boyd will be instructors at a meeting of Chester's Co. B, 739th Tank Battalion, tonight at 7:30 at the Carolina Ave. Armory. The topic will be "Tank Platoon Tactical Training and Combat Formations."

Capt. John Ciccarelli, commander, reported Sfc. Norman Ballard, assistant unit adviser, has been reassigned to the Far East, and has been replaced by Sgt. Alfred Toopkema of Weirton.

20 Attend Oyster Stew For Chester Masons

About 20 attended an oyster stew dinner held at a meeting of the Chester Masonic 142 Club Tuesday night at the Masonic Temple.

The group authorized the use of the temple for the Chester High School homecoming dance Saturday night. The floor of the high school gymnasium is being repaired. The next meeting will be Oct. 28. Denver Sims, president, and Don Hissam served the meal.

Negley Woman Fined

EAST PALESTINE — Eunice May, 38, of Negley was fined $15 and costs by Mayor Paul Merwin Tuesday for driving on a temporary permit without an accompanying licensed operator. She was cited Monday after her car rolled over on Route 170 south of Negley, the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Hesitation, Dispute Prevented It

Could Have Won War II In '44, Montgomery Says

NEW YORK (AP) — Hesitation and dispute over strategy prevented the Western Allies from ending World War II in Europe in late 1944 instead of May 1945, says Britain's Field Marshal Montgomery.

A top German general agrees that the Allies could have defeated Germany about five months sooner.

After the successful Allied assault inland from the Normandy beachhead rendered the German situation in France desperate by the middle of August, "the end of the war in Europe was most certainly 'within reach,'" Montgomery writes in his memoirs.

"But what was now needed were quick decisions and, above all, a plan. I had a plan ready . . ." he wrote.

Montgomery says he presented a plan concentrating the West's resources into a 40-division thrust directly up the west coast of Europe toward the Ruhr and Berlin.

The Associated Press asked German Gen. Huenther Blumentritt, now 66 and living in Germany, to comment on the Montgomery plan. Blumentritt was chief of staff of the German Western armies at that time under Field Marshal von Rundstedt.

Blumentritt said: "I am absolutely convinced that the war would have been over by Christmas 1944, that there would have been a saving of Allied lives and that the Western Allies would have been in Berlin before the Russians had Montgomery's plan been carried out."

He said the Western Front was completely disorganized after the Normandy fighting and the Germans could not have mustered enough resources to meet a sustained single thrust of great strength.

Montgomery says he and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme Allied commander, were "poles apart" in military strategy.

The British field marshal says plan for a forward strike in the middle of Germany, but that Eisenhower compromised by trying to take all the objectives on a broad advance.

"The proper development of Allied strategy north of Seine will become one of the great controversies of military history," he writes. "In the end it was the Germans who benefited from the argument. Had we adopted a proper operational plan in the middle of August, and given it a sound administrative and logistic backing, we should have seized the Ruhr before the winter set in.

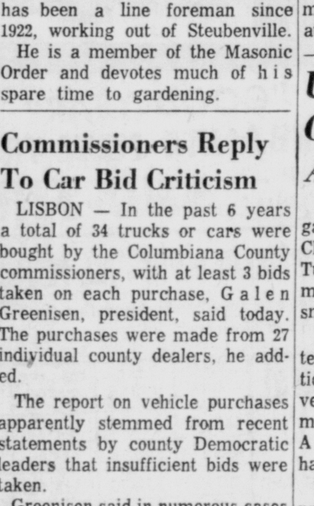

"This would not only have shortened the war. It would also have held out possibilities of bringing it to an end in Europe with a political balance very much more favorable to an early and stable peace than that which has actually emerged."

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said President Eisenhower will have no comment on Montgomery's views.

Phone Company Worker To Mark 40-Year Service

Thomas B. Gill, who joined the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. directly on graduation from Ripley High School in 1918 marks his 40th service anniversary with the company Saturday.

Gill, who resides with his wife, the former Ruth Scott of Wheeling, at 640 Blackmore St., began with Ohio Bell as a lineman and has been a line foreman since 1922, working out of Steubenville.

Jury Awards $490 In Highway Land Suit

LISBON — A verdict for $490.50 was returned Tuesday by a Common Pleas Court jury in a land appropriation suit involving property used in the improvement of State Route 164 south of Lisbon.

The jury awarded Twila Hochman of R. D. 1 $160 for land, $283 damages to residue and $47.50 damage to building and fence. The state had offered $173.50 for the 1.013 acres.

Judge Joel H. Sharp presided. The trial began Monday.

Commissioners Reply To Car Bid Criticism

LISBON — In the past 6 years a total of 34 trucks or cars were bought by the Columbiana County commissioners, with at least 3 bids taken on each purchase, Galen Greenisen, president, said today. The purchases were made from 27 indiyidual county dealers, he added.

The report on vehicle purchases apparently stemmed from recent statements by county Democratic leaders that insufficient bids were taken.

Greenisen said in numerous cases involving the purchases, as many as five bids were received. He said dealers are asked to bid on the same specifications in each case.

Cars and trucks are supplied for the sheriff's department, Welfare Department, Highway Department, Engineering Department, dog warden, auditor's office and County Home farm, Greenisen said.

Newell Revival Series Will Begin Thursday

Revival services at the First Methodist Church in Newell will begin Thursday night and continue through Oct. 26. Services will be at 7:30 each evening and at 10:50 a. m. on Sundays.

The Rev. Wayne Patton of Wilmore, Ky., a graduate of Asbury College and Seminary, who served a year and half as an assistant pastor and youth director of a Baptist Church and seven and half years as pastor of Methodist Churches in the Kentucky Conference, will be the preacher.

Rev. Patton served the 9th St. Baptist Church in Cincinnati and Highland Methodist Church in Ft. Thomas, Ky., as well as Methodist Churches in Mt. Hebroh, Walton, Manchester and Bloomfield, Ky.

Buffer Zone Fails To Solve Issue

Court Battle Will Continue Over Pigs And Restaurant

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — An attempt to put a buffer zone—or no-pigs-land — between an Ohio Turnpike restaurant and a farmer's hog-feeding operation is going to stay in the courts a while longer.

For a time Tuesday it appeared a Sixth District Court of Appeals journal entry might end the dispute which arose in the summer of 1957. The entry was to delineate boundaries that would keep pig feeding at a minimum of from 300 to 700 feet on the southwest side of the turnpike's Tiffin River Plaza.

That side is in the direction of prevailing winds toward the plaza, and operators of the restaurant complain odors and flies from the hog troughs distress their customers.

The new boundaries increased the no-pigs-land neutral zone set in an injunction issued in Williams County Court in July, 1957, against J. Russell McKarns, the pig-raising farmer.

Lawyers for the Turnpike Commission and Buddies Restaurant at the plaza have contended McKarns, admittedly unhappy with the $39,040 settlement he got from the state when construction of the turnpike divided his farm, was making an unnecessary nuisance of his hog feeding.

Tuesday's attempts at creating a new and satisfactory buffer zone between hog and human diners ran into an unexpected snag. It was learned that in the area to be outlined in the journal entry, McKarns recently had erected, at a cost of $6,000, a 730-by-26-foot concrete feeder strip.

Judge Clyde Deeds told McKarns' attorney that he felt the farmer should have advised the three-judge court before he built the new strip.

So, instead of making a journal entry, the court took the matter under advisement.

The delay should impose no great immediate hardship on the restaurant customers. Cool weather is killing the flies and the alleged odors are lessened because McKarns, according to his attorney, has sold several hundred pigs and has left only 50 culls he intends to market before the end of the month.

United Lutheran Church Conclave Approves Merger

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Delegates to the United Lutheran Church in America convention Tuesday substantially approved a merger of the ULCA and three small Lutheran churches.

The approval of the merger, termed the most significant action taken at the 21st biennial convention, will create a church with more than three million members. A name for the new organization has not been determined.

Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, ULCA president, said the constitution and bylaws for the new church will be ready by the 1960 convention. He said he hopes the merger will go into effect at that time.

The three smaller churches involved in the merger are the Augustana Lutheran Church, the Finnish Lutheran Church, and the American Evangelical Lutheran Church.

They have a combined membership of more than 600,000. ULCA's membership is 2,400,000.

In Tuesday's session, the convention authorized spending a record $26,596,560 to operate the church during 1960-61. The budget for the 1958-59 biennium is $25,113,400.

Weekend Football Schedule For District Begins Thursday

East Palestine Tops 17 Teams With 4-0 Mark

With the football season heading into its sixth week of action, a lone team from the district can point with pride to an unblemished record while three others have lost only one game.

Coach Bob Mallory's 17th ranked East Palestine eleven with a 4-0 record, stands out among the 17 district football playing high schools and appears headed for an unbeaten season.

Due to a Northeastern Ohio teacher's convention, grid action this week will begin on Thursday when two games are slated, while nine are scheduled Friday and three more Saturday.

Thursday night games find Wellsville (1-3-1) traveling to Salem (3-2-0) and Columbiana (1-3-1) moving to Sebring.

Coach Ken Woods Wellsville Tigers will be a definite underdog against the high-powered Quakers who have scored 118 points this year while limiting the opposition to only 45. While Wellsville was being nosed out by Cadiz last week, 18-14, the Quakers were rolling over Wooster, 33-0, behind the scoring of giant fullback Lou Slaby. Slaby has six touchdowns to his credit this season and all indications point to a long night for Wellsville.

Opposition from the outlying districts of Ohio and West Virginia will provide stiff competition for district teams come Friday.

Bellaire (4-1) visits East Liverpool (1-3-1), Rochester invades Midland (3-1-1), Follansbee St. Anthony plays at Chester (3-1-2), Lisbon (2-2) invades Louisville, powerful Poland faces Leetonia (2-2-1) at Leetonia, New Cumberland (3-2-1) travels to Wellsburg and Minerva comes to the county for a game with undefeated Palestine under the lights.

Two games are set Friday afternoon, with Salineville (3-2-0) moving to Wayne in Jefferson County for a game at 2:30, and Newell (1-4) making a junket to Irondale (1-3).

Three games Saturday will all be played in the afternoon. Randolph visits United (2-1-2) at 2:15, Canfield meets Fairfield-Waterford (1-4) and Beaver Local (1-4) travels to South Side (2-3).

Bellaire will provide stiff opposition for Coach Lou Venditti's Potters. They have won four of five games, losing only to Moundsville, 6-0. However, the Potters seem much better than their record shows and indications are that the game will be a toss-up.

Midland, with one of the strongest defenses in the district, meets Rochester and the Leopards will enter the contest fresh from trouncing Monaca, 26-12, last week. Midland has permitted only 39 points to be scored against it this season.

Salineville, upset last week by Fairfield-Waterford, should slip by Wayne High easily—providing star quarterback Larry Kessler has recovered from injuries. Kessler missed last week's game with a serious back injury while Fairfield-Waterford was chalking up its first victory in five games. Newell High's only victory is a 12-0 score over Wayne.

Chester High's Panthers, who reign supreme among the district's smaller ranks, face tough competition this week and will be an underdog against visiting Follansbee St. Anthony. Comparative scores seem to make the Steelmen a favorite. Chester tied New Cumberland, 14-14. New Cumberland lost to Weirton Madonna, 26-13, and Madonna nipped the St. Anthony crew by a single point.

The most evenly-rated game of the weekend seems to be the annual Newell - Irondale encounter. Both teams have scored only a single victory and both also lost games last week, Newell, 25-6 to Chester, and the Irons, 14-6 to Wayne. However, Newell may have the edge as it registered a 12-0 win over Wayne.

Giants Purchase 3 From Phoenix Club

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Three new faces will be seen at Phoenix, Ariz. next year when the San Francisco Giants open spring training. The trio, purchased Tuesday from the Phoenix farm club, are:

Dupas Choice Over Turner

MONTREAL (AP) — Ralph Dupas turned 23 Tuesday. Tonight he hopes to celebrate the birthday with a victory over veteran Gil Turner in a television battle of welterweight contenders at Montreal's Forum. He's a 7-5 choice to have a happy party.

This is the first visit to this French-speaking city by Dupas, a Cajun from New Orleans. He's finding the climate and the French spoken here different from his native Louisiana. But he has been greeted warmly by the populace.

Dupas is one of the slickest boxers in the welterweight division. His cleverness and speed are the reasons why he's been made the favorite although he's ranked sixth among the welterweight contenders and Turner is ranked third.

The curly-haired Southerner, a pro since he was 14, moved out of the lightweight division for good when he was knocked out by lightweight champion Joey Brown in a title bout last May. He had been fighting at about 143 pounds and had to make 135 or less for Brown. He weighed 134.

"That was too light for me," said Dupas. "I was weak. I fight best at 143 or so."

Since his loss to Brown, Dupas has beaten Johnny Gorman and Ray Lancaster. His record is 72-9-6. Turner, 27, has a 57-16-2 record.

Waive Extradition

DEMING, N. M. (AP)—William Kozdron, 43, of Marietta, Ohio, and two companions, held in connection with a $16,000 daylight robbery of a finance company in El Paso, waived extradition Tuesday and were taken to Texas to face charges. Kozdron and James Kelly, 28, of New York, and William Lowell Samples, an escapee from West Virginia State Prison, were captured at a roadblock east of here Monday.

Hogan And Snead To Represent U.S. In Canada Event

NEW YORK (AP) — Ben Hogan and Sam Snead are next to get a shot at trying to stem the tide of international sports trophies flowing to other lands.

These two old pros have been named as Uncle Sam's representatives in the sixth annual Canada Cup golf matches at the Club De Golf in Mexico City Nov. 20-23.

Torakichi Nakamura and Koichi Ono of Japan won both the team and individual championships last year in Tokyo. Nakamura was the individual winner, beating out Snead and Jimmy Demaret plus the best golfers of 28 other countries.

Around 30 countries will send their two best golfing pros to Mexico City next month for the event. Snead and Hogan teamed at Wentworth, England, in 1956 to capture the Canada Cup team prize. Hogan won the individual trophy with a score of 277.

Ranger Coach Sees 4th Spot

NEW YORK (AP) —The rookie-studded New York Rangers won't win the National Hockey League regular season championship. Neither will they finish fifth or sixth.

The authority for these statements is the person who knows the club best — Coach Phil Watson.

With his team making its home debut against the Boston Bruins tonight, Watson analyzed the Rangers' chances by saying, "We'll definitely get into the playoffs. We should beat out Toronto and Chicago."

To get into the playoffs, a team must finish among the first four. Last season the Rangers wound up second to the Montreal Canadiens, but were eliminated by Boston in the first round of the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Watson refused to predict the order the six teams will finish. He conceded however, that Montreal appears too powerful and should come in first.

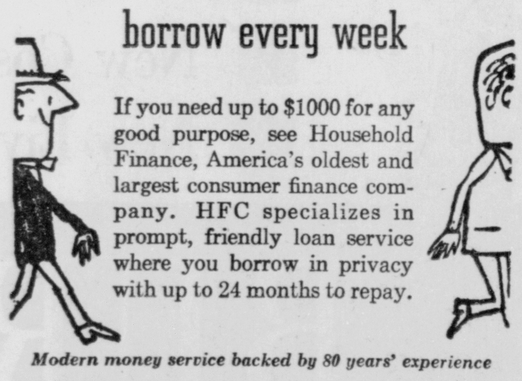

He rated Boston as the "second best in the league with three good lines." Watson, whose team lost to Detroit 3-0 last Sunday night, also was impressed by Detroit's bumper crop of rookies.

Chicago is the only undefeated team after the first week and boasts nine newcomers in an effort to improve the last-place finish of a year ago.

The Rangers have played three road games, tying two and losing one.

Browns Made Heavy Choice Over Steelers

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns are heavy favorites to defeat the Pittsburgh Steelers in Sunday's clash at Municipal Stadium.

Odds makers, impressed by the Browns 45-12 drubbing of Pittsburgh two weeks ago, have made Cleveland 9½-point favorites.

But the Steelers, fresh from a 24-3 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles, may be an improved team.

"The players know what they did wrong in that one.

"Our improvement last Sunday over what we showed against Cleveland is very encouraging.

"And any time you can hold a club like the Eagles your defense must be pretty fair. We'll be changing our defensive setup some, too. We think we'll be able to contain Jim Brown better."

The Browns' big fullback scored three touchdowns against the Steelers. He handled the ball 17 times and gained a total of 129 yards.

Layne sparkled in the Steelers conquest of the Eagles. Parker commented:

"Layne was plenty smart in moving the offense. In our other games we weren't able to capitalize on our breaks. Bobby was able to take advantage of the Eagles' errors."

Won Decision Over Folley

England's Henry Cooper Seen Next Patterson Foe

LONDON (AP)—It appeared today that the strange, circuitous search to find a man to fight Floyd Patterson has ended.

Cooper, a little known heavyweight, got a debatable decision Tuesday night after 10 rounds against Zora Folley, an American who ranks No. 2 in line for Patterson's world title.

Cooper boxes only fairly and he cuts easily. He lost four of his last six fights, has fought professionally only 30 times and has spent much time recently as a chopping block-sparring mate for main-bouters.

His main claim to fame hitherto was a one-round KO over newly crowned British heavyweight champ Brian London when both were just out of the novice class.

If England and promoter Harry Levene have anything to do with it, Cooper's going in against Patterson for the world title in an open air bout next summer—probably June.

"I say now Cooper and Floyd Patterson will meet in London next summer for the world heavyweight championship," said Levene after talking to D'Amato.

D'Amato made himself unavailable in New York, but only Tuesday turned down two Madison Square Garden dates—Dec. 5 and Dec. 12 — for a Patterson-Nino Valdes title fight.

The Associated Press saw the Folley-Cooper fight as a draw or going to Folley by a slight margin. Several London boxing writers called it Folley's fight.

Heavyweight Title Match Falls Through

Julius Helfand, chairman of the State Athletic Commission who has been helping in the negotiations, said Cus D'Amato, manager of champion Floyd Patterson, had turned down two suitable December dates offered at a "reasonable rental."

End Bobby Bryant Of Texas Selected Lineman Of Week

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

A couple of guards achieved the goal of every lineman by running for touchdowns last week, but the Lineman of the Week honor today went to an end, big Bob Bryant of Texas.

Bryant snared the forward pass for a touchdown that enabled Texas to tie Oklahoma at 14-14 and set the stage for Bob Lackey's winning extra point from placement. It was Texas' first victory over the Sooners since 1951.

Texas, behind 14-8, had the ball on the Oklahoma seven, third down, in the closing minutes of play. "You guys have just got to get open," quarterback Lackey told his ends in the huddle.

"Golly, I did, and that Lackey threw me the ball," the jubilant Bryant said afterwards.

Thus did the left end for the Longhorns gain the Lineman of the Week in the Weekly Associated Press poll of sportswriters and broadcasters. Altogether Bryant caught four passes for 29 yards and played an outstanding defensive game throughout.

It was a cruel twist of fate for Oklahoma guard Jim Davis. Only a few minutes earlier, he had grabbed a Texas handoff and raced 24 yards for a touchdown that put the Sooners ahead. Nevertheless Davis became one of the few linemen who can boast of having scored a touchdown. Gene Appel, Columbia guard, also joined the list. He intercepted a Yale pass and raced 65 yards for a touchdown as Columbia upset the Eli 13-0.

Dick Wallen, UCLA All-America end set a school record by catching 10 passes in a losing cause as the Uclans bowed to Florida. Two were for touchdowns. Another end, Jerome Green of Georgia Tech, threw a jolting block that enabled Frank Nix to get into the open for a 74-yard punt return for a touchdown against Tennessee.

Guards Bob Grottkau of Oregon and Frank Miknis of Wyoming were among those praised highly.

Ex-Kentucky Cager Will Return To Pros

BALTIMORE (AP) — Ralph Beard, former college and Olympic star, will make a return to professional basketball this season with the Baltimore Bullets in the Eastern League.

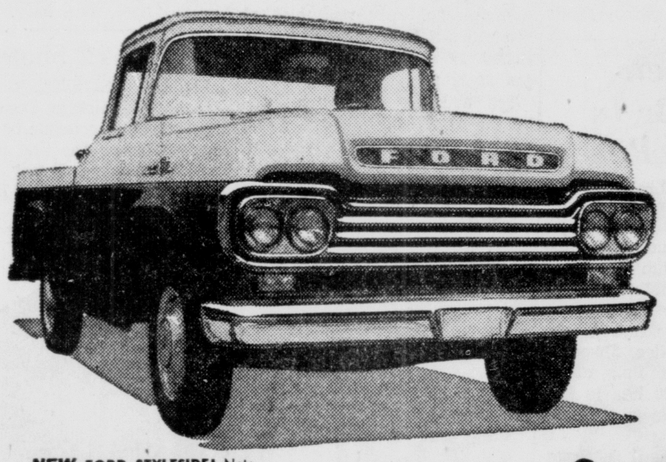

The two-time All-America at Kentucky 10 years ago played with Indianapolis in the National Basketball Assn. after his graduation. An investigation of college basketball scandals in 1951 led to Beard being put on probation for three years. He went into the Army when his pro eligibility was restored.

Army, Auburn, Iowa And Navy Picked To Win Saturday

Pitt Favored To Measure West Virginia

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Last week's predictions (21 wrong ones in 55 stabs) can bring a chesty forecaster back to earth faster than a burned-out moon rocket.

Auburn over Georgia Tech: The Plainsmen, who haven't yielded a touchdown on the ground since 1956, will have a busy afternoon but their defense should pull them through.

Texas over Arkansas: The Razorbacks have scored only three times in four games and Texas did beat Oklahoma.

Notre Dame over Duke: Nick Pietrosante and Wray Carlton to share the individual honors.

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

EAST: Harvard over Columbia, Holy Cross over Dartmouth, Lafayette over Temple, Penn State over Boston University, Delaware over New Hampshire, Brown over Penn, Pittsburgh over West Virginia, Princeton over Colgate, Rutgers over Bucknell, Syracuse over Nebraska, Wake Forest over Villanova, Yale over Cornell.

MIDWEST: Ohio State over Indiana, Michigan State over Purdue, Colorado over Iowa State, Kansas State over Missouri, Boston College over Marquette, Illinois over Minnesota, Tulsa over Drake, Michigan over Northwestern.

SOUTHWEST: Oklahoma over Kansas, Houston over Oklahoma State, Texas Christian over Texas A&M, Baylor over Texas Tech, Southern Methodist over Rice.

SOUTH: Louisiana State over Kentucky, Davidson over Carson Newman, Florida State over Virginia Tech, Florida over Vanderbilt, Furman over Wofford, Mississippi State over Arkansas State, North Carolina over Maryland, Virginia Military over Tampa, Tennessee over Alabama, William & Mary over North Carolina State.

FAR WEST: Arizona State over San Jose State, Brigham Young over North Texas State, Wyoming over Colorado State University, Oregon State over Idaho, Utah State over Montana, New Mexico over Arizona, College of Pacific over Cincinnati, California over Southern California, Air Force over Stanford, Denver over Utah, Washington over UCLA.

Colts' Coach Has Worn Same Suit In 3 Wins

BALTIMORE (AP) — Coach Weeb Ewbank of the Baltimore Colts may wind up looking like a Bowery resident if his National Football League team keeps winning.

Ewbank has worn the same suit to each of the Colts' three victories and will attempt to extend the streak next Sunday in Detroit.

Canton Local Ratifies Pact With Bus Line

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Members of Local 489 of the Teamsters Union early today ratified a new two-year contract with Canton City Lines to replace one that expired Tuesday night.

The pact provides for a wage increase of 10 cents an hour immediately for the 101 bus drivers and maintenance men and an additional 5 cents Oct. 15, 1959.

Agreement on the contract was reached in a bargaining session which began at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday and ended at 1:30 a.m. today. The local's membership approved it immediately by a vote of 65 to 20.

Banks, Colavito Win Loop Slugging Titles

NEW YORK (AP) — Ernie Banks, the major league leader in home runs and runs batted in, also won the National League slugging championship with a .616 average in 1958. He is the first Chicago Cubs' player to win the title since Hack Wilson did it in 1930 on the strength of 56 home runs.

Rocky Colavito of Cleveland captured the American League slugging crown with a .620 mark, figures compiled by The Associated Press also showed today.

Banks pounded out 24 doubles, 11 triples and 47 home runs among his 193 hits. He compiled 380 total bases — also a big league high. The 27-year-old shortstop drove in 129 runs.

Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants, last year's pacesetter, finished second the past season with a .583 percentage. Mays collected 350 total and 29 homers.

Hank Aaron of Milwaukee had 328 total bases in 601 trips and finished third with .546. He had 196 hits including 34 doubles, four triples and 30 home runs.

Stan Musial of St. Louis was fourth with .528 followed by Frank Thomas of Pittsburgh, .527; Harry Anderson of Philadelphia, .524; Orlando Cepeda of San Francisco, .512 and Frank Robinson of Cincinnati, .504.

Musial holds the National League record for the highest slugging average among players who have been in the majors 12 or more seasons. His lifetime mark is .578. The American League standard is .692 set by Babe Ruth.

Colavito had fewer total bases than both Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees and Bob Cerv of Kansas City at the close of the 1958 campaign. But the Indians' outfielder had only 489 official times at bat compared to 519 for Mantle and 515 for Cerv.

Colavito had 41 homers, second only to Mantle's 42 in the junior circuit. Rocky, who wound up with 303 total bases, also had 26 doubles and three triples. Mantle had 307 total bases and finished second in the slugging competition with a .592 average. Cerv was third at .590 with 304 total bases which included 19 doubles, seven triples and 38 homers.

Ted Williams of Boston, who led the AL in slugging with a .731 mark in 1957, was fourth with .584. Then came Roy Sievers of Washington, .544 and Jackie Jensen of Boston, .535.

Mountaineers Hope To Be In Shape For Pitt

MORGANTOWN (AP) — The Mountaineers of West Virginia University hope to be at full strength Saturday to invade powerful Pittsburgh, but tackle Jim Hillen and fullback Glen Shamblin are the question marks.

Shamblin, a 200-pound Sissonville junior, and Hillen, 230-pound senior from Smock, Pa., missed last Saturday's 36-30 loss to Boston University because of injuries.

The light cast placed on Shamblin's fractured ankle was removed yesterday. Whether the rugged fullback will return Saturday hinged on the outcome of treatments to remove the soreness from his foot.

The Mountaineers engaged in defense and offense drills, with some group scrimmage tossed in. Coach Art Lewis gave no indication of who will start the Pitt game after indicating several changes Monday.

Bill Trozzo and Terry Fairbanks, starters at tackle and end to date, were back on the practice field yesterday after missing the week's first session. Trozzo appeared to be suffering from a cold or influenza.

Fairbanks had a touch of flu.

Nonpareil Club Project

Training Room Proposed

A committee was chosen to investigate a proposal for installing training room facilities at Patterson Field and plans were discussed to hold a "Jimmy Lowry Night" for the WOHI sportscaster when the Blue and White Nonpareil Club met Tuesday night. About 45 attended in the YMCA.

Following a motion by Dick Forzano that the club select construction of training room at the football field as a project, H. A. Tullis, president, announced that the club's officers and directors will act as an investigating committee to air possibilities for constructing the new room, expected to cost about $2,000.

Forzano, chairman of the club's ways and means committee, pointed out that present facilities for caring for injured athletes are very inadequate along with dressing room and shower facilities. He added that ceiling leakage when it rains "makes a mess" of the field's locker rooms and explained that showers should be partitioned so that opposing teams will not be together.

Plans call for the city's various carpenter and painter unions to be contacted to find out if they would be interested in helping with the project, and another member reported that the East Liverpool Junior Chamber of Commerce may possibly agree to supply necessary labor for installing the training room.

Lowry, sports broadcaster for many of the district's high school athletic events, will be honored at the final home game of the Potters, Nov. 14, with Alliance. Plans also call for a banquet in his honor. He plans to leave for Syracuse, N. Y., in December where he has purchased a radio station.

Head coach Lou Venditti, in discussing the Potter-Bellaire game Friday night at Patterson Field, disclosed that Bellaire "will be big—without a doubt the biggest team we will meet all year."

The coach told the group that Bellaire had rolled over four foes this season, losing only to Moundsville, but added that "Bellaire hasn't played competition as strong as the Potters." "If we can keep our regular club in there without losing any with injuries, the Potters will do a good job," he said.

After East Liverpool's commendable performance against top-rated Warren last week, Venditti thought this week's game would be "a toss up" and looked for the Potters to turn in another good performance.

"I was well satisifed with the performance of our boys in the Warren game," he said, and gave praise to guard Charlie Davidson for his bang-up line game against the tough Panthers.

He also credited center Joe Leigh, guard Jim Bise, tackles Carl Ludwig and Craig Burbick, and Dave Goodballet and Nick Musuraca for their sterling defensive play, while Ken Cunningham and Tim Archer drew plaudits for their passing offensive.

Venditti disclosed that a Steubenville Central scout had tabbed Dave Zelch and Dave Goodballet "as the best safety men seen all year," reflecting the fact that no team has scored a touchdown on passes against the Potters in five games.

Venditti also urged club members to attend the next reserve game at Massillon Oct. 25, and thanked members for providing refreshments for team members following the Warren game. Tullis announced that the team also would receive a lunch following the remaining games away.

Forzano reported 325 members have been signed in the present campaign and that a membership booth will be set up at Patterson Field for the home game with Bellaire. Les Smith, Jud English, Ed Hester, Harry Couch and Forzano will operate the booth. Movies of the Warren game were screened by Venditti.

West Virginia Sets Dates For 3 Grid Title Playoffs

By The Associated Press

West Virginia Sports in a hurry:

Tentative dates have been selected for playoff games involving the state's three high school football championships. The Class A title contest has been set for Nov. 8, that of the Class AA for Nov. 15 and the Class AAA championship game Nov. 22.

It is not conceivable that Weirton and Parkersburg, who meet at Weirton Nov. 7, may wind up as finalists in the AAA playoff game. Both teams are unbeaten and have looked impressive so far this year. They may have enough of a rating average to qualify for the playoff berths.

If they do, the question is whether the title game should be played or whether the winner of the regularly scheduled Parkersburg-Weirton game should be declared state AAA champion.

Former world heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, who retired from the ring unbeaten, will referee the Holly Mims-Johnny Cunningham 10 - round boxing match at Fairmont, Oct. 27, Promoter Jim Ribel announced.

Eddy Skidmore of Point Pleasand scored eight points without making a touchdown during the Big Blacks' 38-0 romp over Mason City Wahama last week. He placekicked five points after touchdown in five attempts and then booted a field goal. . .

Ritchie County high school gridders are playing a benefit game tomorrow night for Lew Fifer, Pennsboro High player, who had his leg mangled in a shooting accident. The 17 - year - old youngster suffered shotgun wounds when a supposedly empty gun went off in the hands of a friend.

The benefit game, between Harrisville and Pennsboro High reserves, will be staged at Pennsboro, with all proceeds going to the Pifer family. Doctors have not determined whether the leg will have to be amputated . . .

Dick Longfellow's school record of 307 yards in passing and running for West Virginia during the Mountaineers' 36-30 loss to Boston U. enabled him to jump from 45th place to fourth among the individual offense leaders in major college football.

Topping the list is quarterback Billy Holsclaw of Virginia Tech with a total of 620 yards as compared to Longfellow's 541. Holsclaw is from Charleston, Longfellow from Spencer. The two will oppose each other Oct. 25 when WVU and Virginia Tech clash in the Tobacco Bowl game at Richmond, Va. . .

Brown Leads NFL Rushing

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —Husky Jimmy Brown of Paul Brown's Cleveland Browns is leading the National Football League in ground gaining with more than half as much yardage in three games than he pounded out in last year's entire 12 games schedule.

Now in his second year of pro football, Brown gained 942 yards in 1957. In the first three games of 1958, he has accounted for 482 yards for the unbeaten Browns.

Cleveland's "bread and butter" guy has carried the ball 75 times, averaging 6.4 yards per effort and 160 yards a game. He's taken dead aim on Steven Van Buren's seasonal yards gained rushing title of 1,146, set by the former Philadelphia Eagles' star in 1949.

Tom Wilson of Los Angeles ranks second in the art of carrying the ball with 280 yards, followed by newcomer Bobby Mitchell, also of Cleveland, with 262, and Jon Arnett, Los Angeles, 253.

Little Eddie Lebaron, the lightest man in the league, has the heaviest passing average. The mighty mite, as he is known in the pro football world, sports a per pass average of 9.6 a throw. In all, Lebaron has tossed 44, completed 25 for 426 yards and two touchdowns. His percentage of completion is 56.8.

Conley Financing Own Bid In Pro Basketball

BOSTON (AP) — Gene Conley, who denies his basketball venture is due to a dead pitching arm, is financing his own bid to make the Boston Celtics' squad.

The 6-8 Milwaukee Braves righthander scored seven points for Boston Tuesday night during a 15-minute stint in a National Basketball Assn. exhibition game with Cincinnati at Burlington, Vt. Boston won 101-95.

"I will be back in baseball next spring," Conley said.

Stengel Expected To Announce Signing

NEW YORK (AP) — Announcement that Casey Stengel has been signed to a new pact as manager is expected to be made today by the World Champion New York Yankees.

The club has called a mammoth press conference for the occasion. Last week there was a report that Stengel might quit, but the 68-year-old skipper termed it "rubbish."

Forward Pass Making Comeback In College Grid Ranks

Top Elevens Slated To Use More Aerials

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The forward pass making a comeback? To look around some of the nation's college football practice fields you would think so.

With all the talk of wide-open, spread offensive formations, lonesome halfbacks, ends and hotdog salesmen and slot, split, tight and upside down T formations, the forward pass has taken a back seat.

All of this has lessened the scoring a bit too much for some coaches, and they are returning to a better balance of attack after last weekend's games.

Army, the nation's No. 1 team and leader in the new offensive fashions with its bazooka and "lonesome end" realizes that it does not have an infallible weapon. Notre Dame did not allow it to run rampant, though losing 14-2.

Coach Earl Blaik won his game with a cute passing attack that gave balance when the Irish least expected it. He now faces Virginia and is letting his receivers have a week of intensive instruction to improve on the 100 yards on 7 of 16 passes against Notre Dame.

The Irish, on the other hand, had a miserable 11 yards passing yardage on 4 of 9 completions. Coach Terry Brennan, facing his fourth different offense against Duke, is spending most of the time coordinating and perfecting the passing game. His running attack is proven with fullback Nick Pietrosante leading the charge for 203 yards against Army's stout defense.

Tulane plays Navy in the Oyster Bowl this weekend and must face the Middies' Joe Tranchini. His pinpoint tosses beat Boston University and Michigan on successive weekends.

Green Wave Coach Andy Pilney is prepping his boys for the same kind of attack after getting 120 yards on 13 of 18 tosses against Mississippi last weekend. Tulane lost 19-8 with its ground attack netting a meagre 28 yards. Navy promises the same kind of ground defense.

Woody Hayes of Ohio State still isn't satisfied with his ground offense being able to carry the load. He has quarterback Frank Kremblas and Co. working to perfect an aerial game that got 44 yards beating Illinois 19-13.

Wisconsin, the Big 10's dark horse, didn't gain a yard against Purdue by its passing, and must face tough Iowa this weekend. Coach Milt Bruhn, unhappy with the passing situation not being able to balance a 211-yard rushing yardage count, has the boys working on the pass patterns.

Jim Tatum meets his old Maryland assistant Tommy Mont and the Terps, but has an offense that scored only two touchdowns in winning the past two games. Big Jim is looking for his passers to bone up the scores and make the difference against Maryland. They hit 6 of 16 for 83 yards in beating South Carolina last week.

Kansas takes on defrocked Oklahoma and is also looking to the air to hand the Sooners their second loss in as many weeks. The Jayhawks ground out 228 yards beating Iowa State 7-0 last week, but only 19 in the air. Oklahoma fell before Texas' passing game 15-14.

FIELD AND STREAM

BY R. L. LIDE

Squirrel season will continue through Oct. 31.

This could mean little to local hunters when repeated trips into the woods bring nothing more than a little outdoor exercise and some fresh air.

Fresh air, however helps everyone and particularly the "shut-in" workers who punch the clock day in and day out. The privilege of hunting squirrels thus has some value even though the squirrels are scarce.

Six years ago, he planted three Chinese chestnut trees and this year he gathered several gallons of nuts. At present the trees are about 9 feet high.

Olan has presented me with a gallon of the amber-colored "nuggets" to be passed along to conservation - minded sportsmen in hopes that we can start a "nutty" program for the squirrels. The "nuttier" the better.

Just drop me a postal card giving your name and address, state specifically how to reach your home and I will be willing to pass along a handful.

The nuts should be planted in your garden where they can be protected during the seedling stage and finally transplanted in or near the nearest wooded area for the benefit of the squirrels.

The trees are no good for the lawn, since they are messy. And in order to grow chestnuts at least two trees should be planted for proper pollination.

RABBITS consider chestnut seedling a particular preferred diet, so it will be necessary to place a protective screen around the saplings to insure the trees reaching maturity.

I think all sportsmen understand the scarcity of squirrels in the county. I also hope they will join in on a countywide basis to do something about it.

Adopt a forest with the farmer's consent. Not only grow and transplant these chestnuts, but go a little farther. During your hunting trip, take along some walnuts and butternuts. You can find a plentiful supply of these in various spots.

As you move about, heel in a few walnuts and butternuts along the outer edges of the woods.

Most of our native hickory nuts are so worm-infested there is little left for the squirrels. Remember when you could shovel up the cuttings four inches deep under most any productive hickory tree? You don't see that anymore.

I THINK it would be a good idea for the federation of Columbiana County Sportsmen's Clubs to sponsor a county wide nut-planting campaign.

It would take little individual effort to provide a productive program. And once started in this county it would make the conservation clubs of other counties sit up and take notice.

I also suggest that this farmer, Olan Sanor, be invited to attend a future meeting of the federation and be permitted to express the viewpoint of a farmer-sportsman as to how everybody can get in the act for better farmer-sportsmen relations.

Awarded Damages

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— Walter H. Provence, 52, of Agency, Mo., has been awarded $79,000 damages for an injury he received while unloading a railroad car near Wilmington, Del. U. S. District Court said Tuesday the settlement will be assessed against the Grinnell Corp. of Warren, Ohio; the New York Central Railroad and the Pennsylvania Railroad. Provence was unloading pipes from a gondola when a collapsible gate fell on him, crushing his left leg.

LISBON — Three motorists were fined a total of $110 and costs Tuesday by Mayor John Todd and two others forfeited bonds when they failed to appear for scheduled hearings.

Louis Cannon, 33, of Lisbon was fined $50 and costs for driving without a valid license, John W. Culler, 68, of Hanoverton was fined $30 and costs for passing at intersection and Theodore Reardon, 41, of Carrollton R.D. 5 was fined $30 and costs for operating on a restricted permit whout passing needed requirements.

Earl Poulton, 48, of Tippecanoe forfeited $25 for speeding, and Frank Polantz, 35, of Cleveland forfeited $15 for passing at an intersection. All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

New Tires Responsible

DALLAS (AP)—The same armored car has driven into the basement of the new City Hall to pick up funds nearly every day for a couple of years. Tuesday the top of the truck ripped a heating duct loose from overhead. Maintenance engineer H. L. Garland quickly found the trouble. "They got new tires today," he said. "New tread."

Return To Jobs

CLEVELAND (AP) — United Auto Workers members returned to jobs at W. Bingham Co. today, ending a five-week strike which idled 177 at the wholesale hardware and appliance firm. A new contract provides for wage increases of six cents an hour, plus two cents for inequities, in this and next year and a half-day of holiday pay for Christmas Eve.

The cost of living in the U.S. went up 72 percent between 1939 and 1950, reports the Twentieth Century Fund.

Work On Interior Of Fire Hall Told

Calcutta volunteer firemen heard a report on progress of interior finishing of their newly constructed fire and recreation hall when they met Monday night. Fifteen attended and Pete Metrovich, vice president, was in charge.

Firemen plan to finish the floors of the station this week after sanding. Five doors will be installed and sidewalks and a parking lot will be completed soon. Firemen plan to use the auditorium side of the fire station for dances and recreation when completed.

Chief Laverne Seckman reminded residents that burning permits are required for igniting outdoor fires this month. Permits are available at his house. Firemen received a call Sunday night at 6:30 that a house in Fredericks-town was on fire but were notified upon leaving that the family had extinguished the blaze. The next meeting will be Monday night, Norman Neal, president, said.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I give longer wear to bed sheets?

A. The bed sheets will last longer if, after laundering, they are hung on the line correctly. Shake well, while still wet, then hang them with the hems together, the edges of the hems pinned to the line.

Q. How can I prevent woolens from shrinking after washing?

A. If woolens are hung on the line dripping wet they are not so likely to shrink as those wrung out before drying.

Q. How can I banish the odor when cooking smelly vegetables, to keep it from going through the house?

Recovery Slowed In September On 2 Vital Fronts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Recovery from the recession slowed down a bit last month on two vital fronts —industrial production and housing. But the statistics showed continued improvement.

The output of factories and mines advanced one point last month on the Federal Reserve Board's seasonally adusted index of industrial production.

This put the index at 137 per cent of the 1947-49 average in what the board described as the smallest monthly increase since production began rising from the recession low of 126 per cent in April.

The index figure for August originally was set at 137 also but the board said this was revised downward to 136. For Augst of last year the index hit a 1957 high of 145.

The board attributed part of the smallness of the September production increase to work stoppages and model changeovers in the automobile industry.

Red Germany Begs Doctors To Return

BERLIN (AP) — Communist East Germany today virtually begged hundreds of its doctors who have fled westward to return to their practices in the satellite nation.

Prof. Kurt Hager, a secretary of the Communist Party's Central Committee, made the plea as a critical shortage of hospital physicians and family doctors was reported from all over East Germany.

Nearly 500 doctors have fled the satellite since the beginning of this year because of political interference in their professional and private lives.

Tests Cause Smoke

WEST UNION, Ohio (AP) — Dense smoke sighted recently at nearby Peebles comes from a new series of experimental tests. That's the report Tuesday by General Electric Co. which maintains a proving ground near Peebles. GE officials refused to say the nature of the tests.

Deaths and Funerals

Retired Ware Employe Dies

Funeral Is Pending For Sidney Brown

Sidney Brown, 1011 Riverview St., retired pottery worker, died this morning at 5:45 at his home following a long illness. He was 72.

Born at Madley, Derbyshire, England, a son of the late Ephraim and Mary Brown, he came to East Liverpool 56 years ago from Great Britain.

He retired in July 1957 from the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. where he was employed as a caster. He was a member of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and the IBOP.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Annie Brown; a daughter, Mrs. Maxine Elizabeth Calhoun of Cleveland; two sons, Arthur F. Brown of Steubenville and Robert M. Brown of Alliance and three grandchildren.

Clifford Redick

Clifford C. Redick, a former resident of the East Liverpool area, died Tuesday at Springfield, Mo., after a long illness. He was 54.

Born in Newell July 8, 1904, he resided in this area 40 years. He was a former district supervisor of sales for the Heinz Co.

Mr. Redick leaves his widow, Mrs. Nellie Redick at home; a son, Mark Redick of Springfield; a daughter, Mrs. Donald Delong of Newell; three sisters, Mrs. Estella Evans of Newell, Mrs. Paul Urie of Canton, Mrs. Charles Douglas of Glendale, Calif.; a brother, Raymond Redick of East Liverpool and three grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at the Rainey Funeral Home in Springfield. Burial will be in Joplin, Mo.

Edgar Vess

Edgar C. Vess of Jefferson St. Ext., Newell, died at 10:15 a. m. today in the emergency room at City Hospital, where he was taken after a heart attack. He was 49.

A truck driver for the Red Star Transit Co. of Detroit, Mr. Vess apparently became ill while working early this morning. He returned home and then was taken to the hospital. He was born in East Liverpool, a son of the late Everett R. and Mary Ann Beilby Vess.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Mary Miraglata Vess at home; his step-father, Lawrence Vess of Pontiac, Mich.; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Norris of East Liverpool; two brothers, Lindell Kenneth Vess of Canton and Ralph Vess of East Liverpool; four step-brothers, Ray Vess, Ronald Vess, Gerald Vess and Jack Vess, and a step-sister, Mrs. Betty Merwine, all of Pontiac, and two grandchildren.

The body was removed to the Dawson Funeral Home. Arrangements are incomplete.

Mrs. Elaine Bennett

Mrs. Elaine Grant Bennett, 68, an East Liverpool resident for 52 years, died at 6:45 p. m. Tuesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Audrey Densmore, 326 W. 5th St., after a long illness.

She was the widow of Harry J. Bennett, who died March 12, 1954. She was born May 30, 1890, at Beaver Falls, the daughter of the late Elmer and Alice E. Lindsay Grant.

Mrs. Bennett was a member of St. Aloysius Catholic Church and the Altar and Rosary Society.

She is survived by a son, Frank Bennett of East Liverpool; three daughters, Mrs. Audrey Newtz and Mrs. Miriam Maley of East Liverpool and Miss Lucille Bennett at home, the sister and two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Services will be held at 9 a.m. Friday at the church. Burial will be in St. Aloysius Cemetery. Friends may call Thursday at the Dawson Funeral Home.

James Potts

James Potts, 65, a former Dresden Ave. resident, died this morning at 6:30 at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ellsworth Urban, in Canton. He had been ill six months.

Robert Grafton

Services for Robert Dean Grafton, 617 Commerce St., Wellsville, who died Monday at City Hospital, will be held Friday at 2 p. m. (EST) at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville by Emerson Booth of Jehovah's Witnesses. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday afternoon and night.

New Plymouths Are Put On Display By Dealers In District

The 1959 Plymouths went on display today at three district dealers — Mackall Motors, Inc., 1503 Pennsylvania Ave. and Central Service, 7th and Jackson Sts., East Liverpool and Grafton Motors, 327 Main St., Wellsville.

New bumper to - bumper and road - to - roof styling, new power plants with traffic agility which operate 10 per cent more economically and a new top-of-the line series of luxury models head the list of innovations.

The 29 models offered include the new Sport Fury series, which for the first time in the low-price field provides swivel front seats as standard equipment. The swivel seats are optional on four other models.

In addition to the Sport Fury in the revised model lineup, Plymouth also offers the Fury, the Belvedere and the Savoy series. For the first time, Plymouth has two convertibles, one in each the Sport Fury and the Belvedere line.

The many changes in styling and engineering and the addition of the new models result from Plymouth's marketing philosophy, according to Harry E. Chesebrough, general manager of Plymouth.

"We are convinced that the American economy is at a point where value is the most important factor in the purchase of a new car," he said. "Everything we have done to our 1959 line of cars reflects this belief."

Among the "value" features are several which contribute to a total of some 10 per cent greater economy of operation.

There is a new three - stage carburetor, standard on all V-8s, which with new manifolding reduces gas consumption in the middle speed ranges, where most driving is done. A new rear axle gear ratio of 2.93:1 is available at no extra cost with the Torque - Flite transmission. Exhaustive tests of cars with this gear ratio resulted in gasoline savings as high as six percent. Oil consumption in the powerflow six engine is reduced with new tappet chamber baffles.

Although the improvements have reduced operating costs, they have at the same time increased performance.

The new Golden Commando 395 V-8 engine, with 305 horsepower, has been increased in displacement from 350 to 361 cubic inches, and in tests has shown exceptional "getaway" ability in traffic. It is an optional engine for all Plymouth models. Additional torque in normal driving ranges is a feature of all engines.

Board Assails Little Rock Case Hearing

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The latest round in the Little Rock school situation has been assailed by the Little Rock School Board as a "summary proceeding."

The board in a brief filed Tuesday, contended that some of the principal parties would not be represented at today's scheduled hearing before three judges of the U.S. 8th Circuit Court of Appeals.

Federal Dist. Judge John E. Miller of Arkansas on Sept. 24 refused to rule on the leasing plan. He held that he did not have the jurisdiction to do so, that it must be ruled on by a three-judge court.

The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People carried its appeal to the appellate court here after a temporary restraining order was issued in Omaha.

Nine days ago the appellate court extended the order and told lawyers for the NAACP, the U.S. Justice Department and the school board to be before the court today to argue the case on its merits.

The Justice Department attorneys entered the case as friends of the court. But Tuesday's brief, filed by Richard C. Butler, a school board attorney, contended that the Justice Department actually was "taking the position of the NAACP."

The brief said the Little Rock Private School Corp., the group trying to lease the school buildings, should be classified as an indispensable party to the action. Also, the brief claimed, judge Miller's court should be represented.

There were a number of forms today's hearing could take, including:

1. The entire matter could be placed again before Judge Miller with instructions for him to accept jurisdiction.

2. The ban against the lease arrangement could again be extended. Several Arkansas statutes employed by Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus in the plan have been challenged as being invalid.

3. The leasing arrangement could be approved but with the stipulation that the private schools be operated as integrated.

Home Loans Easier

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Buyers will be able to get loans for new homes more easily in November, Federal Housing Commissioner Norman P. Mason said. "While I don't expect us to have the same easy-money situation as in April and May, in another month the market will not be so tight as it is now," he said at a Kentucky real estate meeting.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Happy Dieter Now Wears Size 14

All 40 pound overweights — today's column will be a stimulating challenge. Years back when the pounds began to creep on insidiously, you intended to reduce. But alas, it's not easy to put good intentions on a par with action.

Ida Jean Kain

To hear from a reader who took courage in hand to begin the battle and is now triumphing over the pounds will do more for your morale than any amount of information I can pack into a column. It's inspiration that helps to release your will to do. A happy reducer writes that she feels a wonderful alliance with all your overweight readers. Here is her letter:

"On May 21st of this year I stepped on the bathroom scale and found, to my horror, that I weighed 169 pounds. I had realized I was gaining, but I just kept telling myself that I would start reducing 'tomorrow.'

"BUT TOMORROW never came —until the day I came face to face with the fact that I was one pound away from 170! That did it. The very next day I got hold of a calorie guide, set up a chart, and placed it on my vanity.

I recorded my starting weight and the date. Just the sight of this keeps me working toward my goal of 130 to 135 pounds. I am 5 feet 4.

"The first week I shed 4 to 5 pounds. Since that time it has been at the rate of about one pound per week, which suits me fine. This morning I tipped the scale at just under 150 pounds, a loss of almost 20 pounds up to now. Can you imagine how thrilled I am?

"In the beginning it is not easy, but once the initial plunge is made, it's clear sailing and a stimulating challenge all the way. You just have to make up your mind whether you would rather keep increasing your dress size or know the thrill of being able to slip into a smaller size. The best part of calorie counting is that I have very satisfying meals—I just watch myself.

"Six weeks after I began to lose I bought a size 14 dress and hung it where I could gaze at it daily. I am wearing that dress as I write this letter. I have nothing but compliments on the dress itself and on how slim I look in it. This is music, sheer music, to my ears!

"YOU RECENTLY printed a charming letter from a 24-year-old girl who exclaimed that after her husband remarked that she looked so small since losing weight, wild horses couldn't keep her from attaining her goal!

"I clipped that and gave it to a friend and it inspired her to start. Your encouraging column is a real boon to us overweights."

Three cheers for that spirited dieter! Friends, take action. Reducing one pound a week can add zest to daily living and slowly but happily bring you nearer to the right dress size.

Area Group Launches Plans For Tri-State Road Planning

For the first time in recent history, a movement has been launched for co - ordination of the efforts of highway department officials in Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania for projects that would be of mutual benefit to residents of the tri - state region.

The first meeting looking toward active co-operation was held Tuesday at Pittsburgh. Three representatives of Eastern Ohio and Northern West Virginia met with Edward Smuts, president of the Regional Industrial Development Corp. of Pittsburgh, which has been active in development of highways in Pittsburgh and Allegheny County.

Representing this area were Atty. Francis H. Lang, chairman of the highway committee of the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council; Walter L. Myers of Steubenville, executive manager of the UOVDC, and James Fleniken, secretary manager of the Weirton Chamber of Commerce and treasurer of the UOVDC.

They discussed the possibility of arranging a conference of highway officials and other spokesmen for the three state governments early next year to talk over a project for improvement of Routes 30 and 22. The area delegation pointed out that the two federal routes serve eastern Ohio and northern West Virginia, although they must look to western Pennsylvania for improvement of part of the stretch.

Pennsylvania already has scheduled a project for a 12 - mile extension of Route 22 which also would serve Route 30 westward from Pittsburgh. Work probably will start next year. The new highway would be an extension of the Penn-Lincoln Parkway, which connects Pittsburgh with the Greater Pittsburgh Airport.

Ohio View Church Will Give Dinner

The Ohio View Lutheran Church will hold a congregational dinner tonight at 6:30 in the Industry Fire Hall with each person attending to take a coverdish and table service. Coffee, milk and dessert will be provided.

Mrs. George Hamilton, assisted by the Girl Scouts, will care for children of parents attending.

The Rev. Norman E. Kieffer of the Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Beaver, and a member of the executive committee of the Pittsburgh Synod, will be speaker.

Rev. Kieffer is also president of the West Conference of the Synod. The program will include invocation, a community sing, followed by the opening remarks of the Rev. James N. Servey, pastor. Alex Frederick, general chairman of the sector project, will be toastmaster. Mrs. Wayne Pinkerton is chairman of the dinner, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Fiediga, Mrs. Alex Frederick, Mrs. Donald Luster, Mrs. George Myers and Mrs. George Madish.

Brief presentations will be made by the committee chairmen, including research, Homer Paul; proposal, Edward Walker; survey, Joseph Fiediga; publicity, Eugene George, and visitation, George Myers.

Following the dinner, children will be transported from the fire hall to the church for a special program planned for them.

The Church Council has agreed to accept the lowest bid for new sidewalks to replace the broken area beside the church.

City Man Goes To Trial On Obscene Literature

The jury seated this morning by Judge Buzzard includes Robert L. Byrne, Marietta Heffner, Alfred Birbick and Nelson Larkins of East Liverpool; Dorothy Hamilton, Virgil Kornbau and Earl Frost of Wellsville; Edwin A. Dawson, Margaret Horning, Helen Bloomberg and John E. Ulrich of Salem and Roy H. Rowland of East Palestine. Bernice M. Bennett of Lisbon is alternate.

Wellsville Will Hold Schools Discussion

A public "town meeting" on Wellsville's educational problems to prepare recommendations for a statewide conference at Columbus will be held in Daw Junior High School Thursday at 7:30 p. m. (EST).

Richard Grills, delegate to the State House conference Oct. 28 in Columbus, will be in charge. He will be accompanied to the state session by Supt. S. E. Daw.

Delegates will submit local findings to the state meeting where recommendations will be drawn up for presentation to the State Board of Education and State Legislature.

Young Miss Bernhardt

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—In true theatrical fashion, Jovita Jaeger, 7, went on and did her pantomime without music in a church amateur contest after her record player was broken on the way to the church. She won first prize-a $50 savings bond.

Blame The Skunk

KENORA, Ont. (AP) — Glen Wiens of Steinbach, Man., stopped near here to let a skunk cross the road. Robert Sundquist of Keewatin, Ont., driving the car behind, wasn't able to stop and his car was badly damaged. The skunk was unharmed.

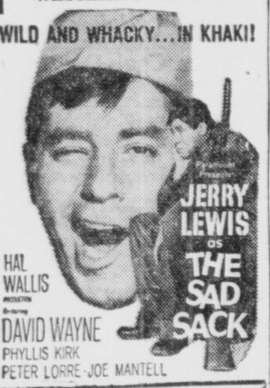

Townsend Harris, who founded the City College of New York, was the first American Consul General to Japan in 1855.

26 Ore Carriers To Be Laid Up For Season

CLEVELAND (AP) — Twenty-six of the 37 ore carriers which Pittsburgh Steamship Division of U. S. Steel Corp. put into operation May 12 will be laid up for the season next week.

Pittsburgh steamship has the largest of the Great Lakes ore fleets—a total of 57 ships.

The winter berths for the vessels to be taken out of service at the end of next week are in Conneaut, Lorain and Toledo, Ohio; Duluth, Superior and Milwaukee.

Company officials said other carriers would continue to operate throught he week of Nov. 16.

More than half of the pedestrians killed annually in auto accidents reportedly jaywalked or acted in an otherwise unsafe manner, according to the National Safety Council.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF ELECTION ON BOND ISSUE AND TAX LEVY
Rev. Code, Secs. 133.11; 3501.11 (G); 3318.06.

NOTICE is hereby given that in pursuance of a Resolution of the Beaver Local School District of Columbiana County, Ohio, passed on the 22nd day of September, 1958, there will be submitted to a vote of the people of said Beaver Local School District at the GENERAL ELECTION to be held in the Beaver Local School District, Columbiana County, Ohio, at the regular places of voting therein, on Tuesday, the 4th day of November, 1958, the following questions as a single proposal:

(1) the questions of issuing bonds of said Beaver Local School District in the amount of Two Hundred and Nine Thousand and No/100 Dollars (209,000.00) for the purpose of constructing fireproof additions to existing fireproof school buildings and additional fireproof facilities for school purposes, remodeling and improving exisitng fireproof school buildings, furnishing and equipping school buildings and structures and landscaping and otherwise improving school sites as provided by law.

The maximum number of years during which such bonds are to run is twenty-one (21) years.

The estimated average additional tax rate amounts to Sixteen Cents ($0.16) for each one hundred dollars of valuation which is one and six-tenths (1.6) mills for each one dollar of valuation, outside of the limitation imposed by Article XII, Section 2 of the Constitution, as certified by the County Auditor and

(2) the question of an additional levy of taxes for the benefit of the Beaver Local School District for the purpose of paying the cost of the purchase of class room facilities from the state at the rate of one-half mill for each one dollar of valuation except that in those years in which the tax rate for debt service outside the ten-mill limitation is less than three and one-half mills, the rate shall be increased to that rate which is the difference between four mills and the tax rate for debt service outside the ten-mill limitation, until the purchase price is paid but in no case longer than twenty-three (23) years.

The Polls for said Election will open at 6:30 o'clock A M. and remain open until 6:30 o'clock P.M., Eastern Standard Time of said day.

YOU CAN
Trade-In Your Old Furniture
AS YOU WOULD YOUR OLD CAR
Read The Facts

"The trouble with furniture" people say "is that it costs too much and lasts too long."
Soundly built furniture seems to refuse to "wear out". Relatively few families are in a position to discard usable furniture, to give it away or sell it for peanuts, in order to refurnish their homes with the beautiful new things they see in our store and in our advertisements. That's what makes this announcement of Smith and Phillips Trade-In plan of such significance to homemakers in this area.

No "gimmicks," no "sleight of hand," no "flat allowances" offered regardless of the value of your furniture, no prices inflated to absorb the allowance you receive. You dial Smith & Phillips FU 5-1215 We send an appraiser to your home without the slightest obligation to you whatsoever. You then visit your Smith & Phillips store. You choose the furniture you want from one of the largest, finest, most value-conscious collections in East Liverpool. You deduct your Trade-In allowance from the prices on the tags—and if you prefer, you arrange payment of the balance to suit your convenience.

Some questions and answers
We've been discussing this plan with some of our customers. They've asked some questions that may be occurring to you now. Here they are!

Can I come in to see whether I can find the new furniture I want before you send an appraiser to my home?
Of course. You are decidedly welcome to visit your Smith & Phillips store (and if you haven't shopped Smith & Phillips lately, you're in for an eye-opening treat!) After you have made your selection, we can arrange to have an appraiser call at your home.

What if I decide not to make a purchase after you make an appraisal?
You are under no obligation at any time. If you decide not to make a purchase, we'll thank you for having given us an opportunity to be of service—and hope that you'll give us another opportunity some time soon.

May I trade-in any suite of furniture I own toward the purchase of a new suite?
Yes. For example, you can trade-in your old living room suite toward the purchase of a new living room suite; you can trade in your old bedroom for a new bedroom. Or you can trade-in your old bedroom suite for a new living room.

And here's the $64,000 question! If your prices are as low as they possibly can be, how can you afford to offer trade-in allowances?
You know what happens to your old car when you trade it in. That's exactly what will happen to you. old furniture. We plan to recondition it and resell it through our Used Furniture Departments. Our trade-in allowance will not be price discounts. They represent actual value we expect to recover through the resale of your old furniture.

May I trade-in my furniture and not purchase anything immediately?
Yes. For example, you may wish to have tha. old sofa out of your way, but may not be able to purchase anything right away. We will appraise the sofa and allow you an amount toward the purchase of a certain amount in the future. Let us say we allow $30.00 for the old sofa on the purchase of $150.00 at any time in the future. Your account will be marked with a credit of $30.00. If your next purchase is for $75.00 we apportion the credit or in other words, we will allow you $15.00 at that time and you will still have $15.00 credit due on $75.00 worth of purchase. Many persons have taken advantage of this unique trade-in plan in the past, but some of you may not have known of it.

Views Given On Proposal

Bricker Says He'll Vote For Right-To-Work Plan

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Last of the top-of-the-ticket candidates to take his stand on controversial issue No. 2, U. S. Sen. John W. Bricker has announced: "I shall vote for the right-to-work amendment."

Bricker, campaigning for a third term in the Senate, said last week he would give his views on the proposal which would regulate union-employer labor contracts by making union shop agreements unlawful.

Not until he was two-thirds of the way through his half - hour speech Tuesday night did Bricker begin a discussion of the proposed amendment to the Ohio Constitution.

He said he had "given careful attention to the arguments for and against the proposal as filed with the secretary of state for distribution to the voters of Ohio."

"I realize, of course, that it is not a party issue and that reasonable and honest men and women may reach a different decision," the silver-haired Republican explained. "A constitutional amendment belongs to the people, regardless of party, business or labor affiliation."

At the time his speech was being carried by television stations in 10 Ohio cities, including the seven largest, and in Huntington, W. Va., Bricker was attending a rally here. He had prepared the telecast on tape in Cleveland early Tuesday.

Bricker indicated he would not press his viewpoint on the voters on issue No. 2 or make it a major campaign issue as his running mate, Gov. C. William O'Neill decided on second thought to do.

"If I should assume a dictatorial attitude in regard to the position of either, I would be stepping out of my position as a member of the U. S. Senate, which eventually must write a just and effective law for the whole country," Bricker said.

Bricker's opponent, Stephen M. Young of Cleveland, has confined his campaign references on issue No. 2 mainly to challenging the senator to take a stand. And Michael V. DiSalle, Democratic candidate for governor, holds the view it is not a proper issue to belabor in campaign. Both Young and DiSalle have taken stands opposing the constitutional change.

"The revelations of the McClellan Committee, plus the failure of the 85th Congress to legislate against the abuses brought to light, are the source of the present strong public support for right-to-work measures," Bricker said. He called such measures "secondary in importance to congressional responsibility in the labor relations field."

But, Bricker predicted, "There is virtually no chance of remedial legislation being approved by the next Congress" to correct abuses by labor leaders as disclosed in McClellan Committee hearings.

"In Ohio the effective way to do it, and the only way to do it in 1958, is to make it possible for individual union members to exercise their individual power of the purse," the senator declared. "If we guarantee to them the power to withdraw from union membership and to stop paying dues when their unions engage in activities abhorrent to them, we take the only step possible toward the cleansing which, in some places, is so necessary."

The senator appeared at Stambaugh Auditorium with O'Neill before an audience of about 2,000 Republicans. The crowd, which O'Neill remarked reflected in its size the interest in the election, was described as the largest GOP gathering here since Vice President Richard M. Nixon spoke here two years ago.

The governor said the white lines "painted along the edge of the state highways during my administration have helped save many lives."

Driver Draws 3 Fines

LISBON—Elmer L. Mitchell, 33, of Hubbard was fined $100 and costs Monday by Mayor John Todd on three charges—$50 for failure to display highway use tax stamp; $25 for improper registration of his tractor and $25 for improper registration of the trailer. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Oil Industry Origins Traced By Speaker For Rotary Club

The second richest of all industries in the nation—the $30 billion petroleum industry—was discussed by James Wallover of the Wallover Oil Co. in East End when the Rotary Club met Tuesday noon in the Travelers Hotel. About 65 attended.

Wallover, whose great-grandfather refined shale oil in the Smiths Ferry fields in 1857, spoke "Petroleum" and traced the beginnings of the industry from the first gusher in 1859, through the boom years in the next two decades to the vast industry today which spans the globe.

Wallover pointed out the word petroleum denotes crude oil as it comes from the ground in its natural state or when secured from coal shale and other sources.

"The first oil company formed in the U. S. in 1854 took the name of Pennsylvania Rock Oil Co. on leased land along Oil Creek, near Titusville, Pa.," he said, "and the nation's great oil boom started when Col. Edwin L. Drake 'gushered or ushered' in the first producing well in 1859 at a depth of 69 feet.

"The idea of an oil well at that time seemed so absured that, while being drilled, it was called "Drake's Folly." "However, petroleum products today are invaluable, Wallover pointed out that in the early 19th Century, petroleum was considered a nuisance. "It spoiled salt wells, smoked in lamps and had a bad odor."

"However, men began to experiment with it in Western Pennsylvania and a few products were isolated, including kerosene, a lightweight lubricating oil and heavy black residual."

Wallover said "the Egyptians used the heavy oil or asphalt for embalming and papermaking. "Others in the ancient civilizations feared the everlasting fire set by the Gods, which were probably oil and gas seeps light ignited by lightning," he related.

He said it is little wonder that Webster defines petroleum as a complex mixture of hydro-carbons and listed several of the byproducts of the mineral, made possible through research on the different properties and characteristics of the individual composites of the petroleum family.

Wallover was introduced by Dean Wilhelm, president, who presided at a Board of Directors meeting that followed. A Midland Rotarian was a guest.

It's shaped to the new American taste with a lean, clean silhouette, crisp new contours, beautifully restrained accents. It brings you more spaciousness and comfort with a new Body by Fisher. It has a bright new sheen—a new kind of finish that keeps its luster without waxing for up to three years. New bigger brakes. Vast new areas of visibility. New Hi-Thrift 6. New handling ease and road steadiness. It's new right down to the tires!

Never before has an automobile manufacturer made such sweeping changes two years in a row. And never before has any car been new like this one.

The 1959 Chevrolet is more than a restyled car—more, even, than a completely new car. It's your kind of car. Shaped to reward your new taste in style with a fresh Slimline design that brings entirely new poise and proportion to automobile styling. Inside the new and roomier Body by Fisher you'll find truly tasteful elegance. And you'll have clear seeing from every seat. The new Vista-Panoramic windshield curves overhead—and there are new bigger windows, too.

When you take the wheel, you find Chevy's newness goes down deep. A new steering ratio makes handling easier. New suspension engineering gives you a more stable ride. There's a sweet new edition of Turboglide*. A new Hi-Thrift 6 that goes and goes on a gallon. Vim-packed V8's. New and bigger brakes. Even tougher, safer Tyrex cord tires.

There's still more! A new finish that keeps its shine without waxing or polishing for up to three years. New Impala models. New wagons—including one with a rear-facing rear seat. And, with all that's new, you'll find those fine Chevrolet virtues of economy and practicality. Stop in now and see the '59 Chevrolet.

MIKE TURK'S LONG AUTO CAREER REVIEWED

Mike Turk's automotive career is a Horatio Alger success story that has seen him rise from a $4-a-week job washing cars to the head of an agency expected to do between $2½ and $3 million yearly.

MIKE TURK

A franchised dealer since 1925 and operator of East Liverpool's oldest continuous dealership, Turk recently expanded his operation by adding the Chevrolet and Cadillac franchises to his present Buick line.

But he hasn't confined his activity to the auto business alone. He also is secretary of the East Liverpool Broadcasting Co., operator of WOHI, vice president of Woomer Brothers Construction Co., and owner of Turkana Farms on the Fredericktown Rd., specializing in Black Angus cattle.

Mike Turk, Inc., which grossed $1,200,000 in 1956, is expected to nearly double that volume of business in the expanded operation and the 40-man work force is expected to be increased to 50 by the end of the year.

When the firm was launched in 1925, it sold 75 new and used cars at a total of less than $100,000.

In addition to selling, Buicks, Chevrolets and Cadillacs along with General Motors' German-made Opel, Turk's firm also has complete repair facilities and operates two used car lots on Broadway and on W. 5th St. The sales force sold about 600 new and used cars in 1957.

Fascinated by the first motor vehicle — an ambulance — he saw moving along a highway without horses in his native Russia, Turk still was drawn to cars when his family arrived in East Liverpool.

He obtained a job washing cars after grade school at the Willys-Overland agency near his home, working from 4 p. m. to midnight for $4 a week. Turned down when he sought a raise, he went to the Chandler garage for $12 a week.

After graduating from high school, he took a job in the shop of an Oldsmobile agency and then transferred to the sales force at the owner's suggestion.

He entered Case Institute of Technology to study engineering, working as a fountain clerk to meet expenses. He later transferred to a pre-medical course at the University of Pittsburgh.

He began by selling Buicks and later was promoted to sales manager of Harris Buick, giving up the position in 1925 to start his Turk Nash agency on Dresden Ave. with a four-man staff.

As the business grew, he moved into leased quarters in the Cawood building at E. 6th and Walnut Sts., adding the DeSoto, Plymouth and Packard cars to his dealership.

When he was unable to renew the lease on his quarters in 1934, the agency was virtually homeless until the Salvation Army came to the rescue by lending him a large tent.

The tent was erected across the street on the site of the present Community Parking Lot, but a windstorm blew down the tent, damaging several cars.

Turk had been negotiating to acquire part of the former Knowles, Taylor & Knowles Pottery Co., location of his present operation, expecting to dismantle part of the old building and add a new roof.

Disaster threatened the firm when the walls collapsed and Turk was forced to erect a new structure. Building costs soared far above the estimates but a banker came to his aid, guaranteeing the mortgage despite the depression.

The City Motors operation was moved to the Winland building in 1940 and then was closed in 1941 at the start of World War II.

During the war, Turk maintained his service department in his present building and then resumed the Buick franchise after the close of World War II when manufacturers decided no dealer could handle more than one make of car.

10 MEN SALES STAFF OFFERS 129 YEARS AUTO EXPERIENCE

There is no doubt about it, Mike Turk's sales staff is composed of men who know the automobile business and what it takes to make satisfied customers. The ten men in this department, including Mike, have learned long ago that while fancy surroundings are a necessary factor, there is just one real important thing to selling and that is service.

Each of these men have been indoctrinated with this rule: "The satisfied owners of the cars you sell are your best prospective customers — keep them that way by providing the best possible service". Mike Turk's steady growth as a car dealer is the best testimony that service and fair dealing is his "buy word". The men whose photographs are shown here have had a total of 129 years of automobile experience. In addition to selling they can virtually take any car apart and name the parts and explain their purposes; they can compare the features of each make and model of car, no matter how new or old; they know metals, paint, and fabrics from a practical point of use; they understand color harmony; they know the meaning of horse-power and its application to modern motors; and above all they are endowed with the kind of "horse-sense" an automobile salesman needs to bring together the right car for the right owner.

Chevrolet for '59—all new all over again! Wider in body. and functionally so—surer on the road, roomier and more comfortable for you and your family. Lower, yet with more head room in some models, greater entrance room in all models, greater visibility area all around. Matching its comfort and convenience are magnificent mechanical advances—in handling, steering and braking. In economy and durability.

Buick Sleek and low describes Buick's new styling for 1959. The model shown is the luxurious two-door Electra hardtop which measures less than 55 inches in height yet retains approximately the same headroom as last year's Buick. The "delta-wing" styling of the rear fenders that flare out to a point, and twin headlights that are set on an angle give the new Buick a look that is light and jaunty.

Cadillac For completely new treatment, the four-window Sedan de Ville reveals a low, sweeping roof silhouette extended briefly and gracefully over a broad expanse of newly styled rear window glass. A "jeweled" rear grille and the gleaming bumper highlight the rear design.

Plant, equipment, and working tools comprise another important part of this business and this local agency for Chevrolet, Buick and Cadillac is recognized as having the most of the best in the Tri-State district. The photos shown here, together with those on page 6 give a general view of what is required to operate a modern agency. (Inadvertently the photograph of Mr. Kenneth Johnson, cashier and time clerk, was not included on this page. Kenny has been with the firm for over 10 years.)

LARGEST AGENCY IN TRI-STATE HAS SPECIALLY TRAINED STAFF

It takes a wealth of talent and experience in an automobile dealer organization to make it function smoothly. Mike Turk is fortunate in having men and women working with him to help establish his automobile sales and service as one of the best. Forty employees, each placed in the position where he can exercise his talent and experience to the best advantage, is one of the reasons for the steady growth of Mike Turk, Inc. Plant, equipment, and working tools comprise another important part of this business and this local agency for Chevrolet. Buick and Cadillac is recognized as having the most of the best in the Tri-State district.
